REPRINT PERMISSION RULES/PROCEDURES

To obtain permission(s) to reprint/republish an article or book review from Steinbeck Quarterly, the Steinbeck Monograph Series, Steinbeck Essay Series, or any other Ball State-sponsored Steinbeck publication, please note the following rules and procedures:

I. Submit a written request stating (A) what you wish to reprint with permission and (B) the publication (including electronic formats) where it will be reprinted to the following address:

   John B. Straw
   Assistant Dean for Digital Initiatives and Special Collections
   Ball State University Libraries
   Bracken Library 210
   Muncie, IN 47306
   U.S.A. (if pertinent)

   The information about (A) should include author, title, volume number, season or month, year, and page numbers; and the information about (B) should include title, editor’s name(s), publisher, and location (city, state, country). State in your written request that you will acknowledge our permission(s) properly and specifically in the publication and that you will send a complimentary copy of the publication to Archives and Special Collections in the Ball State University Libraries.

II. Complete the reprint permission application form and send it along with a check in the amount of $30.00 for each article or $15.00 for each book review, payable to Ball State University, to the following address:

   University Libraries
   Dean’s Office
   Ball State University
   2000 University Avenue
   Muncie, IN 47306
   U.S.A. (if pertinent)

III. When the payment is received, the copyright owner/representative will send you a letter of permission. (Please note that additional conditions may apply in some cases.) If your request is to reprint from the printed version of the publication, the fee will go to the Steinbeck Fund, account number 2-26900. If the request is to reprint from the Web version of the publication, the fee will go to the Archives and Special Collections, account number 2-26805.

IV. If you are a Ball State University graduate with an awarded advance degree (M. A. or Ph. D.) or if you had served on the Editorial Board of the said journal or monograph, etc., the fee may be waived or reduced for the first article/book review reprint as long as you prove your identity clearly and specifically and fulfill any requested specified condition(s).
