History

The Colleen Club was a club composed of young women from the St. Lawrence Church, and was active until the 1920s. The club was an extensive social and philanthropic organization, and their colors were green and white. The club had their first reunion after 27 years in September 1947.

Scope and Contents

This collection includes two photo/scrapbooks from the annual reunions from 1947-1989, as well as notebooks in which minutes were kept and a card index of members.
