Dr. Charles Alvey Collection, 1929-1969

1 box, 03 cu. ft.

History

Dr. Charles Alvey graduated from Muncie Central High School in 1934. He furthered his education through Ball State University eventually earning a degree in Medicine. Many years after he began his career in medicine, Dr. Alvey was named City Health Officer by the Health board of Muncie. Dr. Alvey also had the honor of serving as the President of the Indiana Academy of General Practice.

Scope and Content

This collection contains documentation of Dr. Alvey's involvement in the YMCA Bible Study Program, Muncie Central High School, Ball State University, the city of Muncie, Indiana, and Hazelwood Christian Church. Some of these include: Senior Magazines for Muncie Central, The McKinley Echo Newsletter, Sporting Events, Annual Commencement Books, Dance Schedules, Fraternal Information, Muncie City Guide and Directory, "Family Physician as an Educator," written by Dr. Alvey, newspaper clippings from around 1960, and church directories.

PSC 217 includes three photographs of the tornado devastation in Gaston, Indiana and a portrait of Dr. Alvey.
