MAJOR IN LANDSCAPE ARCHITECTURE (BLA), 115 credits

Admissions Standards

A minimum grade-point average of 2.75 in the College of Architecture and Planning first-year course is required of all undergraduate students applying to the BLA program (or declaring an LA major). For transfer students who do not enroll in CAP courses, a minimum grade-point average of 2.75 must be earned in all prior course equivalents to the CAP first year courses.

Portfolio Requirements: All students requesting admission into the department must submit a portfolio of work and meet the minimum grade point average. The portfolio must include examples of work from all design studios and design communication courses, and a statement of purpose. Other creative work may be included.

Retention Standards

If a student earns below a C- in any required studio or engineering course, the student must retake that course. After the first D+ or below, the student must contact their academic advisor immediately following the receipt of final grades from the university. The academic advisor will work with the student to create a plan for moving toward successful completion of the curriculum. If a student receives a second D+ or below for the same course, this will initiate a departmental process that will determine whether the student is retained or dismissed from the program.

MILLER COLLEGE OF BUSINESS

INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION (INTB)

Revised:

300 Foreign Field Study in Business (0-15) Student participation in an approved foreign field study. Includes an investigation of business and economic conditions as well as other cultural factors such as history, geography, language, and society. Requires pre-departure assignments and culminating paper(s) upon return.

Prerequisite: permission of the director of the international business minor.

A total of 15 credits may be earned.

COLLEGE OF COMMUNICATION, INFORMATION, AND MEDIA

Department of Journalism

Revised:

BACCALAUREATE DEGREES

Students will be guided by the outline of baccalaureate degrees, the University Core Curriculum, the majors and the concentration areas listed below. Students majoring in the journalism department are encouraged to meet with an advisor in advertising, journalism, or public relations within the first semester of the program.

Students must complete all major and minor courses with the grades of C or better, including concentration courses outside the department. Before enrolling in an ICOM, JOUR, NEWS, or TCOM course, a student must earn a C or better grade in its prerequisites. Prerequisites for all courses are strictly enforced. Prior to graduation, majors must complete a senior survey and an exit interview with the appropriate program coordinator. Before enrollment in JOUR 104 or NEWS 120, students must successfully complete a language usage proficiency examination. Successful completion of this examination does not satisfy the University Core Curriculum Writing Proficiency Program requirement.

Students must earn a minimum of 72 credits in courses outside the journalism and telecommunications departments (ICOM, JOUR, NEWS and TCOM).

Students pursuing the news concentration are required to complete four semesters or the equivalent of one modern or classical language.

Students enrolled in the magazine media and news concentrations are required to complete a second major or minor outside the departments of journalism and telecommunications. Other journalism department majors are encouraged to select a second major or minor that will complement their major. Minors in journalistic storytelling and strategic communications are not open to students majoring in the journalism department.

JOURNALISM (JOUR)New:

653 Data Visualization (3) Graduate course that focuses on data visualization for journalism, media analytics, and strategic communication. Students will gain experience in advanced reporting and developing interactive charts, diagrams, and maps based on large databases that they generate through best practices in data mining and scraping, as well as from social media and web analytics data sources. Students will examine recent changes in the data visualization field via theoretical and applied scholarly research.

Prerequisite: JOUR 615 or 623 or 651 or permission.

654 Content Strategy and Media Analytics Consulting (3) Immersive learning experience to turn knowledge of media analytics into action for a community partner. This course will integrate theoretical and applied research in audience and analytics and engagement. Students analyze the effectiveness of content strategies employed by a community partner and provide recommendations based on media analytics, metrics, and user experience testing.

Prerequisite: JOUR 651 or permission.

NEWS (NEWS)Revised:

418 Specialty Reporting (2-6) Development of reporting and writing skills needed to communicate the complexities of topics such as science, environment, business, or education to diverse media audiences. Topic of course will be announced in advance of each offering.

Prerequisite: JOUR 104 or NEWS 221 or SPTA 345.

A total of 6 credits may be earned.

Department of ArtART: HISTORY (AHS)*Revised:

251 Italian Renaissance Art (3) An introduction to art and architecture produced in Italy from around 1300 to the mid-sixteenth century. Studying some of the western art history's best known artists, such as Giotto, Donatello, Botticelli, Leonardo, Michelangelo, Raphael, and Titian, we will explore the ways in which art and architecture were commissioned, made, and functioned in Renaissance Italy.

Prerequisite: AHS 100 or 102.

Open to all students.

ART (ART)New:

416 Animation Apprentice (1-3) This course provides an opportunity for an undergraduate student to work as an apprentice for either a professional animator, faculty member, or Master of Fine Arts graduate student on an approved animation project.

Prerequisite: sponsorship by a faculty member and permission of the director of the school.

A total of 6 credits may be earned, but no more than 3 in any one semester or term.

Open only to animation majors.

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY IN EDUCATIONAL PSYCHOLOGY (GENERAL), 91 credits

The doctoral program in educational psychology trains research scholars who will contribute to the understanding of teaching, learning and development; educational accountability and program evaluation; and individual differences in learning and adjustment in educational settings. The core program features areas of study such as learning, human development, statistics, measurement and research methods.

Graduates will be skilled researchers with substantive knowledge of measurement, research design, and analysis of data. Graduates will be qualified for academic positions in higher education and research positions in public and private institutions such as professional evaluation firms and testing companies.

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY IN EDUCATIONAL PSYCHOLOGY (SCHOOL), 130 credits

The PhD program consists of a minimum of 130 graduate credits. The candidate must complete a major in school psychology of at least 40 credits and at least one cognate of 15 credits. As required by the Commission on Accreditation of the American Psychological Association, all students must complete a professional psychology core including courses in the biological aspects of behavior, the cognitive and affective aspects of behavior, and the social aspects of behavior. Course work in individual differences, human development, dysfunctional behavior or psychopathology, cultural and individual diversity, and professional standards and ethics also are required. Theories and methods of assessment and diagnosis, evidence-based interventions, psychological consultation and supervision, and evaluating the efficacy of interventions are required course work consistent with developing competencies as a health service psychologist. In addition, candidates must complete course work in the history and systems of psychology, psychological measurement, research methodology, and techniques of data analysis. All candidates for the degree must submit a research project for presentation or publication in addition to the completion of a dissertation and a doctoral-level internship at sites approved by both the school psychology internship and program directors. Candidates are expected to meet the requirements for Indiana school psychologist licensure as outlined in the section Requirements for School Services Licenses.

Students applying for the program should check with the program for any recent changes dictated by professional organizations or licensure requirements.
