SUCCESS STEPS
TOWARD ACHIEVING ACADEMIC SUCCESS

1. Schedule a PACE Advising Appointment
Schedule an initial PACE appointment with your academic advisor by contacting the Freshman Advising Center (North Quad 339; 765-285-1161) during normal business hours Monday-Friday, 8 a.m. - 5 p.m.

2. Choose Your PACE Program
Choose to complete the PACE program by selecting one:
- four scheduled appointments with your academic advisor
- a one credit hour ID 101: Success Strategies course

3. Choose one PACE Workshop
- Paving Your Career Path
  January 23, 6-7 p.m.
  Student Center, Ballroom

- A Student Perspective: Forum on Success
  February 7, 6-7 p.m.
  Student Center, Ballroom

- Learning Styles & Time Management
  February 27, 2-3 p.m.
  Student Center, Ballroom

- I Need to Change My Major, So Now What?
  March 19, 2-3 p.m.
  Student Center, Ballroom

www.bsu.edu/academics/advising/academicprogress/academicprobation

On average, students who participate in the PACE program earn GPAs that are .6 points higher than their peers on academic probation and are about 32% more likely to end the semester with a term GPA at 2.000 or higher.

PACE (Partnership for Academic Commitment to Excellence) is a personalized program developed by the Freshman Advising Center and designated for freshmen and first year students who are on academic probation.