

David A. Martin, M.A.

Education: Ball State University (2018)
M.A., Adult, Higher, and Community Education
Minor Field of Study: Leadership Studies

Ball State University (2018)
M.A., Executive Development for Public Service

Ball State University (2009)
B.S., Hospitality and Food Management
Minor Field of Study: Foundations of Business

Academic experience:

2017-present	Ball State University Miller College of Business Instructor/Facilitator for the Property Management and Hospitality Innovation and Leadership programs	Muncie, IN
2017-present	Ball State University Miller College of Business Manager of the Maplewood Mansion Learning Lab	Muncie, IN
2016-2017	Ball State University College of Applied Science and Technology Instructor of Hospitality and Food Management	Muncie, IN
2007-2009	Ball State University Miller College of Business, Department of Management Research Assistant	Muncie, IN

Industry experience:

2009-2017	Ball State University Manager- LaFollette Complex Residence Hall	Muncie, IN
1999-2010	Heritage Pointe Staff Supervisor	Warren, IN

Selected recent presentations:

Zemke, D. V., Martin, D. A., & Anderson, P. C. A proposal for university-sponsored senior housing. Presented at the EDRA52 conference. May 19-23, 2021; Detroit, MI.

Smith, R. M., Martin, D. A., Earhart, C. M., (2019). Maplewood Mansion Learning Lab: A partnership advancing immersive learning, community engagement and economic development. Poster presented at the Central CHRIE Conference, Indianapolis, IN.

Hji-Avgoustis, S., Earhart, C., Yen, A., Martin, D., & Fallon, J. (May 2018). Quality of place: Supporting community renewal and stabilization one place at a time. International Town & Gown City & University Relations Conference, Columbus, OH.

Earhart, C., Harrington, R., Martin, D., & Hji-Avgoustis, S. (2018). Maplewood Mansion Learning Lab: Mutually beneficial opportunities through community partnerships. Presented at the Annual Conference of the 2018 Housing Education and Research Association, Savannah, GA.

Grants (funded):

Immersive Learning Provost RAPID grant to support PMGT. 375 immersive learning activities. (2022). Served as Co-PI, along with Zemke, D. Project was funded by Ball State University for $4967

Grant to support RPM immersive learning activities. (2018). Served as Co-PI, along with Earhart, C. Hji-Avgoustis, S. Project was funded by the Miller College of Business' Rodewald Fund for $2500.

Selected press coverage:

Ball State Magazine (August 2018). Interviewed in article titled "Students help run Mansion at Minnetrista with hopes of recruiting Doctors to Muncie long term".

Indiana Economic Alliance Magazine (Spring 2018). Interviewed/quoted in article titled "Optimus Primary: A new mission at Maplewood".

Teaching experience:

PMGT 375	Applications in Property Management
PMGT 255	Facilities Management
PMGT 305	Maintenance for Property Managers [Course Facilitator]
PMGT 425	Property Management Capstone [Course Facilitator]
HOSP 220	Design and Presentation
HOSP 250	Lodging Management [Course Facilitator]

Student advising:

Lead Faculty Advisor, Property Management Association (PMA) Student Organization, 2022-Present

Service activities:

Member, Creative Teaching Committee, 2019- 2021
Member, University Review Board, 2019- 2021
Member, Master Planning and Facilities, 2018-2020
Member, Campus Council Public Safety Committee, 2016-2018
Member, University Staff Council, 2014-2016

Honors and awards:

Housing Impact Award (with co-recipients Dr. Carla Earhart, Dr. Sotiris Hji-Avgoustis, Dr. Dina Zemke), Housing Education and Research Association, November 2021

Collaboration and Innovation Award, Business Affairs (2015). Ball State University, Muncie, IN