Prospectus and Call for Entries
Information submitted to the entry and payment collection site is an agreement to all terms and conditions in this prospectus. Academic dishonesty will not be tolerated (see the Ball State University Student Handbook, or the Code of Student Rights and Responsibilities, Section VII https://www.bsu.edu/studentcode/academicethics). For example, any discovery of any form of plagiarism at any point of the show proceedings will result in rejection of the work, removal of the work if the discovery occurs during the exhibition, and would include rescinding of any award and/or any award money conferred. The Student Show Committee will make the decision for any work in question. The School of Art’s definition of plagiarism is: “While one’s work may be derivative from some particular artistic influence, nonetheless, it should be substantially different and transformational in appearance and character from that which one is inspired to create one’s own artwork.” For further clarification, please see the following web link (http://www.plagiarism.org/article/what-is-plagiarism).

Eligibility
• Artworks must have been produced between January 1, 2017 and February 13, 2018, inclusive, and must have not been exhibited in previous BSU School of Art juried student shows.
• In order to submit work, entrants must have been a Ball State University student and enrolled in at least one art class through the School of Art during the Spring, Summer and/or Fall semesters of 2017.
• All media as listed are eligible for submission but must be finished on date of entry; no artwork may be changed after entering. Once accepted, no work may be removed during the show for any reason.
• Artworks that are, or seem to be, physically unsafe, or otherwise unsuitable for handling (i.e., poorly constructed, poorly framed, without properly attached wire and hanging hardware meeting museum/gallery standards, or environmentally hazardous), will not be accepted for jurying. Avoid cheap molded plastic frames—these tend to warp after assembly, eliminating the work from the show. No sawtooth hangers. The School of Art will not be responsible for any damage to any artwork because of a lack of attention to these points of eligibility by a student.
Entry Fee:
$8.00 per entry—an entry is a single piece of artwork. There is no limit to how many pieces a student may enter, so each student may submit as many entries as desired; i.e., 1 entry = $8.00, 2 entries = $16.00, 3 entries = $24.00, and so on.

Note: Each submission must be entered one at a time at the website.

Juror:
Harris Deller, Professor Emeritus, Southern Illinois University, Carbondale, Illinois
Professor Deller taught at Southern Illinois University in Carbondale, Illinois from 1975-2013. In 2008, he received the NCECA Excellence in Teaching Award for his outstanding contributions to education in the field of ceramics. He continues producing his work at White Roof Studio in Carbondale, Illinois. He will conduct a Juror’s Talk in the Art and Journalism Building, AJ 175, on Wednesday, February 14 at 5:00 PM.

Awards (Scholarships)*
- The juror will select the approximate twenty award winning artworks from the exhibited artworks.
- Award Certificates will be presented during the opening reception on Saturday, February 24, 2018, 6:00 PM to 8:00 PM.
- There will be an overall award of $500 for 1st place, $250 for 2nd place, and $150 for 3rd place.
- Each media category listed below will see an artwork be recognized at the juror’s discretion with a cash award of $100.

*Due to university/state regulations, a cash award must be entered into the BSU accounting system as a scholarship and must be applied to the winner’s Bursar account. If the scholarship entry creates a credit balance for the winner, the Bursar will cut a check, or create a direct deposit (per the winner’s previously declared preference), after the School of Art enters the information. Students can visit the website for the Bursar, or for the Accounting Office, to fill out direct deposit forms in advance, otherwise the credit balance will be sent to the winner in the form of a check following the credit posting.

Jury Process and Notification of Juror’s Decision

- The jurying process for acceptance of artwork into the show will be determined by the juror’s discretion and will be conducted with consideration for the following constraint: amount of physical space. Excessively large artworks or artworks in sets will decrease the total number of accepted artworks, thus they will be juried more stringently.
- Professional presentation of artwork is critical and is part of the jurying process. Each year, artworks have been rejected solely due to unprofessional presentation, e.g., artwork not properly dried, unintended loose materials, poor matting/framing, improper hanging hardware/devices. Avoid cheap molded plastic frames—these tend to warp after assembly.
- A list of accepted artworks will be posted by entry number outside the School of Art office, AJ-401, as soon as possible after the jurying.
- Non-accepted work may be picked up from the gallery on Friday, February 16, 2018 between 1:00 PM and 4:00 PM, or it will be returned to the location indicated on the entry form on Friday, February 16, 2018 after 4:00 PM. Please retrieve non-accepted work promptly. Work not picked up from the gallery will be turned over to the School of Art for disposal.
