Fall 2021 - Ball State University

Saturday Children's Art Classes

Our classes return to in-person this semester!

Expressively Astounding Art!
We are looking at artists whose brave, bold intentions included emotions, messages, and meanings!

Who can enroll? Open to any child, grades 1–6. Masks will be required for everyone inside the building. Your child will need a well-fitting mask.

Dates & Times: 9:30-11:30 a.m. on the following Saturdays:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>(No class Oct 23)</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>Exhibit—may be either virtual or in-person.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Location: Art & Journalism Building, accessed off Riverside Ave. Come to our INFORMATION tables, Art & Journalism Bldg., ground floor, outside the Bookstore, on Sept. 25, 8:45-9:20 a.m., for your child’s classroom number and teacher. Classes start that day.

Cost: $35 for the first child enrolled and $25 for additional siblings.

Registration:
1. Go here bsu.edu/art/saturdayart to register your child or children.
2. Pay with credit card or debit card.

For further information or questions, contact
Dr. Mary Carter at mccarter@bsu.edu, or call 285-5676 (leave your phone number)