TEACHING SUPPORT

Strategic Learning

Strategic Learning is a one-stop resource for professional development, course development, instructional development, and faculty research support for faculty members teaching main-campus, online, or blended courses. The services are conducted in a dynamic environment where team members participate and collaborate in meaningful ways. For more information go to bsu.edu/strategiclearning.

Strategic Learning oversees the following support services for teaching and learning:

Faculty Development Program

Strategic Learning will be rolling out new and engaging experiences in 2018-2019. Activities will include online learning opportunities, workshops, Faculty Learning Communities, techniques and tools, and more. Fall activities will center around interacting and learning from other faculty members including discussing how you teach, developing new ideas, and gaining perspective.

Campus Deadline: Various. Keep posted about offerings at bsu.edu/strategiclearning
Contact: Strategic Learning, ext. 5-6836, strategiclrn@bsu.edu

Canvas Training

Throughout 2018-19, Ball State will be transitioning from Blackboard to Canvas as its campus-wide learning management system (LMS). Strategic Learning staff will host a variety of training and consulting sessions to help you make the most of this tool. Check out our calendar at bsu.edu/canvas for information on upcoming training sessions or feel free to drop by for walk-in hours. You can also contact us to schedule an appointment or ask any questions you might have.

Campus Deadline: Various. Keep posted about offerings at bsu.edu/canvas
Contact: Strategic Learning, ext. 5-6836, strategiclrn@bsu.edu

Creative Teaching Grants

The Creative Teaching Grants is a program mandated by the Faculty and Professional Personnel Handbook. If you are interested in applying, you can request an application manual—available just before Thanksgiving Break. The University Creative Teaching Committee administers the award and chooses awardees. Special consideration will be given to applications that propose a creative approach to immersive learning.

Campus Deadline: January 19, 2019
Contact: Strategic Learning, ext. 5-6836, strategiclrn@bsu.edu

Online Course Development or Revision

If you are new to online learning or are wishing to make revisions to an existing online course, make an appointment with one of our instructional consultants in Strategic Learning. Ball State is a member of the Quality Matters Program, which provides a nationally-recognized standard of best practices for online and blended learning.

Campus Deadline: By appointment
Contact: Strategic Learning, ext. 5-6836, strategiclrn@bsu.edu

TEACHING SUPPORT CONTINUED

Midterm Feedback Service

Strategic Learning offers a midterm feedback service to faculty to collect timely and valuable information about the teaching of the course from students, mid-way through the fall and spring semesters.

Campus Deadline: Week 10 of current semester

Contact: Kathleen Jacobi, ext. 5-1763, kjacobi@bsu.edu

Teaching and Learning Discussions

Occasional informal discussions of teaching and learning, organized as “brown bag” lunches or breakfast meetings, focus on various topics in higher education teaching--academic integrity, student culture, new instructional technologies, etc. Topics announced throughout each semester via e-mail and at bsu.edu/strategiclearning.

Campus Deadline: Various

Contact: Kathleen Jacobi, ext. 5-1763, kjacobi@bsu.edu

iClicker Student Response System

iClicker is the university’s supported student response system. Support for this technology includes workshop on its use, personal consultations with an experienced clicker-using faculty member, and loaner kits to let you try out iClickers before you fully adopt them.

Campus Deadline: Open

Contact person: Angela Nickoli, ext. 5-6681, amnickoli@bsu.edu

Virginia B. Ball Center for Creative Inquiry

The Virginia B. Ball Center for Creative Inquiry offers intense immersive learning opportunities for faculty and students that:

- explore the connections among the arts, humanities sciences, and technology;
- create a product to illustrate their collaborative research and interdisciplinary study; and
- present their products to the community in a public forum.

Ball State faculty members are invited to submit proposals for interdisciplinary, student-driven projects that they will complete while in residence at the VBC. Four (4) Ball State faculty members will be chosen each year to complete these projects in seminars, working collaboratively with up to fifteen students. The center provides each fellow with a project budget of $14,000, a summer stipend of $4,000, and a semester buyout in consultation with the fellow’s department. Please go to www.bsu.edu/vbc to learn more about the Virginia B. Ball Center for Creative Inquiry.

Campus Deadline: Friday, January 25, 2019

SERVICES AVAILABLE THROUGH UNIFIED TECHNOLOGY SUPPORT:

Adaptive Computer Technology Program

The Adaptive Computer Technology (ACT) program provides equal access to computing services to all persons with disabilities at Ball State University. This is accomplished through direct education of students as well as faculty development efforts, which are aimed towards making course work accessible for disabled students. The program provides reasonable accommodations for students, faculty, and staff. The ACT program offers a wide array of equipment and supportive services by enhancing existing academic and computing facilities. This is done in accordance with the University mission, Unified Technology Support mission, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and the Americans with Disabilities Act.

Location: RB 169

GIS Research and Map Collection

The GRMC offers access to not only the latest GIS and related software products, but also one-on-one assistance, group training and topic specific workshops. The GIS research lab can be reserved as a class meeting space or used as a general lab area when there are no classes meeting. The GRMC staff work with faculty, staff and students both individually and in groups as it relates to advance graphics applications and GIS related projects.

Location: BL224

Contact person for GIS services: Angie Gibson, ext. 5-1097, asgibson2@bsu.edu

Unified Technology Support Labs

UTS provides computer lab resources in Robert Bell 134 and Student Center 119 for faculty who choose to give online exams in a secured, on-campus environment. A general use lab is located in Student Center 118 for students to complete assignments, check e-mail, print and search the internet. Contact person: Peggy Hunter, ext. 5-2286, pehunter@bsu.edu

Technology Store

The Technology Store offers discounts to current BSU faculty and staff on Apple and Lenovo computers as well as many types of software and accessories.

Contact person: Whitney Jarnagin, ext. 5-5967, techstore@bsu.edu

University Media Services

We provide state-of-the-art media-related services to Ball State faculty, staff, and departments. We provide high quality video production and professional broadcast services, classroom media delivery, digital and satellite-based conferencing, media archival services, media support for distance education, equipment check-out, and the installation, repair and maintenance of media and production equipment. Most UMS Projects are at “no cost” to the faculty and department when used in a classroom environment. “Grant” funded projects and “promotion” based projects may require additional information and costs.

Campus Deadline: Open

RESEARCH AND SCHOLARSHIP SUPPORT

ASPiRE Internal Grants

Ball State University's Aspire Internal Grant Program provides funding to faculty, professional personnel, and students to support projects in the areas of research, scholarly studies, and creative endeavors. Aspire awards advance the goal of ultimately seeking sponsorship from external funding agencies.

New Faculty Start-Up

The aim of this program is to help new tenure-track faculty members jump start their research and creative arts agendas by supporting research-related items, and travel with a one-time $3,000 supplies, expenses, equipment and travel (SEET) grant. To support faculty not already receiving departmental or college startup funding.

Guidelines are online at:

<http://cms.bsu.edu/about/administrativeoffices/sponsored-projects-administration/aspire/facultyprograms>

Campus Deadline: September 20

Contact: Sponsored Projects Administration

Contact person: Sarah Lee, ext. 5-5083 or slee@bsu.edu

Junior Faculty Research and Creative Arts Grant Programs

Grants are available to support research and creative arts projects conducted by junior faculty members. "Junior Faculty" are those faculty members in their first five years of receiving a new appointment (tenure-track).

Award categories include:

- Summer Graduate Assistantships
- Supplemental Assigned Time (one course buy-out for Fall or Spring)
- Supplies, Expenses, Equipment, and Travel (S.E.E.T.)
- Summer Stipend (up to $6,000 for both summer sessions)

Each proposal is capped at a maximum of $15,000 and can reflect any combination of the above categories. Guidelines are available on the SPA website

Contact person: Jackie Davis, ext. 5-1607, jsdavis@bsu.edu

Faculty Research

The Office of Research and Academic Effectiveness can assist faculty, staff, and students on both individual and funded research projects. We can provide consultation in the areas of research design, instrumentation and survey construction, data collection and entry, and statistical analysis and interpretation.

Contact person for faculty: James Jones, ext. 5-1506, jjones@bsu.edu

Contact person for students: Kianre Eouanzoui, ext. 5-9106, kbeouanzoui@bsu.edu

Student Ratings of Teaching

Near the ending date of each class with an enrollment of four or greater, each class will be evaluated by students using a set of university core and departmental items, and questions that the instructor can optionally add ahead of the evaluation period. Summary reports of the student ratings of teaching will be provided after the grade submission period closes. More information concerning student ratings of teaching can be found in your departmental policies and the university guidelines in the Faculty and Professional Personnel Handbook.

Contact person: William Knight, ext. 5-5974 or wknight@bsu.edu

Office of Entrepreneurial Learning

The Office of Entrepreneurial Learning (OEL) offers an 8-week Summer Entrepreneurial Learning Academy, which will go into its third iteration in May 2018. In this workshop series, faculty participate in instructional design modules and activities that explore the entrepreneurial mindset, create active-learning outcomes for students, and reshape course syllabi of their choosing. The members of the workshop cohort then implement their redesigned courses during the academic year with continuing assistance and resources from OEL. This opportunity is open to full-time instructors (contract, tenure-track, or tenured) in any college and department who will be teaching at least a 2/2 load during the academic year. Faculty teaching courses in the Foundations, Tier I and Tier II of the University Core Curriculum are especially encouraged to apply. Successful academy applicants are awarded a summer salary for their participation along with complementary copies of all materials and supplies necessary for the workshops. For more information on the application process, upcoming schedules, and [supplemental compensation policy considerations, contact Suzanne Plesha at 285-2870 or \[splesha@bsu.edu\]\(mailto:splesha@bsu.edu\)](#)

EXTERNAL FUNDING SUPPORT

Externally Sponsored Projects

Sponsored Projects Administration (SPA) is responsible for assisting faculty in matters related to external grant proposal development & submission, award negotiation & administration, and financial compliance. All aspects of proposal development—funding opportunity searches, narrative review, budget formulation, University clearance guidance, and application submission—are managed through SPA. Once funded, SPA oversees the day-to-day fiscal administration of awards, including approval of expenditures, financial reporting, and audit support.

Funding opportunity databases, such as COS Pivot, and GrantSelect are offered to the campus community, as well as information on internal grants, student funding for projects, and available federal resources.

Extensive information on funding sources is available online at <http://www.bsu.edu/spa>.

Contacts: External Funding Information: Jessie Roark, ext. 5-5003, jaroark@bsu.edu

Overall Responsibility: Justin Miller, ext. 5-1600, jmmiller5@bsu.edu

EXTERNAL FUNDING SUPPORT CONTINUED

Grantsmanship Workshops and Events

Sponsored Projects Administration offers faculty learning sessions, colloquia, seminars, and special events at various times throughout the year. These sessions enable grant seekers to gain a better understanding of the grantsmanship process and provide helpful information regarding how to craft competitive proposals for external funding. In addition to these formal sessions, faculty are invited to request workshops related to grant seeking that address specific areas of interest.
