Student Wage Tiers:

Student Wage Level I ($7.25 - $8.50 per hour)

Entry-level or trainee jobs requiring basic skills that may be performed without previous training or work experience. Essential duties are routine tasks following prescribed procedures. The employee may follow standardized instructions, operate basic equipment, and perform repetitive duties. Some independent judgment or decision making is required. The student works under close supervision and may receive on-the-job training.

Student Wage Level II ($8.50 - $9.50 per hour)

Intermediate positions requiring related experience or training. Essential duties vary from routine to semi-complex requiring independent judgment or decision making; previous knowledge of the work area may be required; duties are varied and may require specialized technical skills; the student may be eligible for certification opportunities. The student works under moderate supervision and may receive additional training or specialized instruction.

Student Wage Level III ($9.50 - $12.00 per hour)

Advanced positions requiring special skills acquired through previous experience, specialized training, or related course work. Essential duties are complex and require independent decision making, problem solving skills, and individual initiative not covered by routine procedures. The student may be responsible for creating or developing processes, procedures, or materials. They may also research and analyze information, make recommendations, consult with others, and creatively apply related skills. The student may assign, review, or monitor the work of other student employees, may be required to have certifications, and may receive advanced training. The student works under indirect supervision.

Undergraduate Internships

Internships are advanced positions requiring special skills and knowledge acquired through the student's academic program. Essential duties may be complex and require the student to use problem-solving and decision-making skills or to apply subject matter expertise related to the academic discipline. The student may also research and analyze information, make recommendations, consult with others, and creatively apply related skills and specialized experience. The student is usually responsible for the creation of a final project, process, report, or materials. The supervisor may be required to complete academic performance reviews and evaluations. The rate of pay for on-campus internships may not exceed the hourly equivalent for graduate assistants within the hiring department.

Graduate Students

Graduate students may be employed in advanced positions requiring a bachelor's degree and specialized knowledge acquired through academic preparation. Essential duties may be complex and require the student to use problem-solving and decision-making skills or to apply subject matter expertise. The student may also research and analyze information, make recommendations, consult with others, and creatively apply related skills and specialized experience.
