

Lily Wessel is a dedicated dance instructor and choreographer based in Indianapolis. Raised just outside the city, Lily received her foundational dance training at Indy Dance Academy, the Indiana Ballet Conservatory, and Summer Stock Stage. She furthered her education by earning a BFA in Musical Theatre from Ball State University in 2020.

Currently, Lily teaches and choreographs full-time, focusing on the pre-professional competitive company at Indy Dance Academy. Her work extends beyond this role, as she has also created choreography for Summer Stock Stage and Westfield High School. Through her various roles, Lily continues to share her passion for dance and performance, contributing to the vibrant local arts community.
