

CASSANDRA WHISLER

PRESERVATION WORKS

During my interior design internship, I had the opportunity to work alongside an architect, which gave me valuable insight into how interior and structural design work hand-in-hand. This experience helped me gain knowledge about planning, construction details, and how to bring a cohesive vision to life!

TIMOTHY DUKE

Risley Furniture & Design

I enjoyed meeting all of the special people behind the designs-their wants, needs, and personalities all wrapped up into the places we live and work.

REBECCA MCSORLEY

J GAUKER INTERIORS

Carmel, In

Throughout my internship, I gained valuable insight into the importance of client interactions in the design process. I had the opportunity to participate in installations, traveling to various client houses and witnessing how thoughtfully selected furnishings and accessories transformed each space.

KAYLEE KROM

MARC T. NIELSEN INTERIORS

Valparaiso, In

My favorite projects at Marc T. Nielsen
Interiors were being able to be creative with material boards and designing an office for a 3D presentation to the client.

ANNA SCHNEIDER

Facilities Planning and Management at Eskenazi Health

Indianapolis, In

During my internship, I learned the importance of establishing strong relationships with clients and other people that are working on the same project. As a designer, you want everyone that you encounter along the way to be able to trust you and your work.

SARAH KEPPEL

FOUR POINT DESIGN

Indianapolis, In

Interning at Four Point Design this summer allowed me to see lot of different sides of interior design through the work that I completed. I learned that there is so much more to an interior design project than just creating the design, and I'm glad that I could gain more knowledge through this experience.

LAUREN COHN

FGM ARCHITECTS Chicago, IL

An internship in my sophomore year was a great opportunity that I would recommend to everyone. Real site work, Revit modeling, and client meetings all helped prepare me for the next school year and my future.

ALICEYA BADGETT

WHIRLPOOL CORPORATION

Interior design has so many different avenues. I am so glad to have had the opportunity, to experience a new perspective during my internship!
