Assistant to the Provost

Works closely with and supports the Provost on a wide variety of administrative duties, special projects, and initiatives involving Academic Affairs. Manages the staff of the Office of the Provost with the administrative and organizational activities, details, and procedures of the Office. Acts on behalf of the Provost as designated and represents the Provost on committees, boards, and panels where appropriate; functions as a point of contact and resource to the university and surrounding communities, allowing for a coordination of responses to issues, questions, and situations. Monitors appointments of faculty and staff personnel in Academic Affairs. Monitors all new/revised courses, programs, certificates, and degrees. Interprets and communicates university policies and procedures internally and externally as needed. Undertakes research and writing for the Provost as necessary for internal and external audiences. Writes and edits materials for university events. Arranges events and activities in which the Provost participates or which are sponsored by the Office of the Provost. Provides oversight of relationships between and guidance to Academic Affairs, Human Resources, Affirmative Action, and Employee Relations. Prepares materials for the Board of Trustees. Works with the University Diversity Committee and the Gender Equity Task Force, and works with the Office of the President on all-university events. Responds to policy and personnel questions from units in Academic Affairs. Uses independent judgment and analytic skills to follow through on issues on behalf of the Provost.
