

Explore

Ball State's Cultural Corridor

Charles W. Brown Planetarium | FREE

bsu.edu/planetarium

Experience the night sky in the largest planetarium in Indiana. Travel through Saturn's rings, land on Mars, explore black holes, and more!

Joe & Alice Rinard Orchid Greenhouse, Christy Woods, Environmental Education Center | FREE

bsu.edu/orchids

Enjoy the largest university orchid collection, attend fun Nature Lab events and stroll through 17 acres of forest, prairie, wetlands, and greenhouses.

Marilyn K. Glick Center for Glass | FREE

bsu.edu/art/glickcenter

Experience art being made and view work from our glass teaching collection at this premier facility for contemporary glass arts.

David Owsley Museum of Art | FREE

bsu.edu/doma

Visit one of Indiana's largest university museums and enjoy more than 11,000 original works of art from around the world and across centuries.

Ball State University practices equal opportunity in education and employment and is strongly and actively committed to diversity within its community.

College of Fine Arts | FREE & low-cost options
bsu.edu/cfa
 See hundreds of top-ranked faculty and student performances and exhibitions from the School of Music, School of Art, and Department of Theatre and Dance.

Emens Auditorium & Pruis Hall | Ticket prices vary
bsu.edu/emens
 Be inspired by an array of guest artists, productions, and celebrities who bring world-class live performances and entertainment to East Central Indiana.

Brown Family Amphitheater | FREE
bsu.edu/map
 Brown Family Amphitheater is an outdoor performance and gathering space for a variety of events and performances.

Athletics | FREE & low-cost options
ballstatesports.com
 Cheer on the Ball State Cardinals! Low-cost tickets are available for football, volleyball, and basketball. Tickets are free for all other home sporting events, including swimming and diving, baseball, and more.

Visitor Information

Parking Options

- Metered spaces
- Free parking on evenings and weekends
- $5 visitor permits (bsu.edu/parking)

Public Transportation

- Muncie Indiana Transit System (MITS) offers convenient access to and from campus (mitsbus.org)
- Campus shuttles

