

Ball State University Counseling Center Training Program

Sample Didactic Listing

I. Research

Research is embedded throughout. All of the trainings are evidenced-based presentations.

II. Ethical and legal standards

Ethics and Law

Ethical Decision-Making Models

III. Individual and cultural diversity

Context, Culture, and Diversity Seminar

Diversity and social justice concerns are embedded throughout all seminars and didactics.

IV. Professional values, attitudes, and behaviors

Lifelong Professional Identity Development Seminar

EPPP, Licensure, ABPP, PsyPact

Compassion Fatigue and Self-Care

V. Communication and interpersonal skills

Communication and interpersonal skills are embedded throughout. All of the trainings require professional development components.

VI. Assessment

Assessment Seminar

Motivational Interviewing

Social Construction of the Diagnostic & Statistical Manual

VII. Intervention

Process Group Theory and Practice Seminar

Assessing and Treating Non-Suicidal Self Injury

Body Image and Sizism

Clients with Disabilities

Couples and Family Therapy

Dialectical Behavior Therapy

Eating Disorders

Evidence Based Clinical Practice

Evidence Based Consultations

First Generation Students

Gender Identity Diversity

Grief and Loss

International Students

Long-Term Effects of Child Abuse on Adult College Students

Men's Issues

Mindfulness

Older Adults

Psychological Treatment of Chronic Pain and Chronic Illness

Ball State University Counseling Center Training Program

Psychoeducational Group Theory and Practice
Psychosis
Religion and Spirituality in Therapy
Sexual Identity Minorities
Single Session Therapy and Clinical Consultation
Terminations with Clients
Trauma Focused Therapy I & II
Treatment of Sexual Assault
Use of Self in Therapy
When Clients Die

VIII. Supervision

Supervision Theory and Practice Seminar
Supervision is embedded throughout many of the intervention topics.

IX. Consultation

Child Protective Services and the Court System
Understanding Social Work and Social Work Supervision
Working in a Medical Environment
Psychopharmacology of Mood Disorders
Psychopharmacology of Anxiety & Sleep Disorders