Social Work Master's Internship

Information for Prospective Applicants

Thank you for your interest in our Psychology Master's Internship Program. The dates of the 2026-2027 Internship are January 11, 2027 through July 23, 2027.

Important Information – Please Read

Orientation is scheduled for the full week prior to the beginning of the Ball State University fall semester. Participation in orientation prior to beginning a placement at the Counseling Center is required. Please plan your schedule accordingly.

Application Process

If you are interested in applying for the Social Work Internship program, please consult with the Director of Field Education within the Social Work Department. The Director of Field Education will provide your information to the Social Work Internship Program Coordinator in the Fall semester. Interested applicants will be contacted by the Program Coordinator to schedule an interview in October.

If you have additional questions about the Social Work Internship program, please contact us at CCTraining@bsu.edu.