Call for proposals

We are currently open for proposals for the 2024 Great Lakes Regional Counseling Psychology Conference. The theme of the conference is Counseling Psychology's Role in Interdisciplinary Care: Infusing Culture, Empowerment and Prevention. We welcome proposals relevant to the conference theme. Presenters can choose from the following presentation modes: Symposia, posters, or roundtable discussions.

Program description

- a. For symposia, provide a 250-word summary of the symposium and a 100-word summary of each presentation in the symposium; each summary should include a title specific to the individual presentation. Symposia will be allotted 50 minutes.
- b. For roundtable discussions, provide a summary of the relevant topical issues and the plan for discussion (Maximum 250 words). Roundtable discussions will be allotted approximately 30 minutes.
- c. For poster presentations, provide a summary of the study, including rationale, method, data analysis, and results. For research in planning or in progress, provide the rationale and method as well as the anticipated date of completion. Maximum length is 250 words.

Each proposal must include an abstract of no more than 250 words. A blind review will be used to examine each proposal. Notification of the receipt of proposals will be received when the proposal is submitted online. Deadline for submitting proposals is February 1, 2024 (5 PM EST). Notification of acceptance or rejection of proposals will be e-mailed to the lead presenter around or before February 20th, 2024.

Acceptance of proposals does not exempt presenters from paying the full registration fee. Due to space limitation, the program committee reserves the right to change the requested proposal type. Proposal should be completed online using the following link:
