Undergraduate Program Credit/No Credit Eligibility

College of Architecture and Planning
All courses within undergraduate programs can be considered for CR/NC

College of Communication, Information, and Media
All courses within undergraduate programs can be considered for CR/NC

College of Fine Arts
All courses within undergraduate programs can be considered for CR/NC

College of Health

- Military Science – All courses in the Military Science program must receive a letter grade and are not eligible for CR/NC.
- School of Nursing – All courses in the undergraduate Nursing program must receive a letter grade and are not eligible for CR/NC.
- School of Kinesiology – the following courses must receive a letter grade and are not eligible for CR/NC: AT 361, 373, 374, 461, 477, 497.
- Nutrition and Health Sciences
  - Courses that count towards the Bachelors in the Dietetics program, including prerequisites must receive a letter grade and are not eligible for CR/NC.
  - Radiography program
    - The following courses for current students of the Radiography program must receive a letter grade and are not eligible for CR/NC: AHSC 226, 227, 230, 233.
    - The following courses for incoming students of the Radiography program must receive a letter grade and are not eligible for CR/NC: ANAT 201, CHEM 100, MATH 125, PHYC 100, PHYS 215, ENG 103, COMM 210, PFW
• Social Work – The following courses must receive a letter grade and are not eligible for CR/NC: SOCW 100, 200, 220, 250, 310, 320, 325, 340, 370, 410, 430, 440, 460, 462, 490

Miller College of Business
All courses within undergraduate programs can be considered for CR/NC

College of Sciences and Humanities
All courses within undergraduate programs can be considered for CR/NC, except where noted below

• Biology - Encourages all pre-health professional students to earn a letter grade if possible.
• Geography
  - GEOG 250 & 331 - METC majors ONLY
  - GEOG majors & Sustainability minors can still take GEOG 331 for CR/NC

Teachers College
All courses within undergraduate programs can be considered for CR/NC

Honors College
All courses within undergraduate programs can be considered for CR/NC