The Elizabeth Martin Scholarship in English is a merit award. The amount may be divided among several students, if so recommended by the selection committee. The recipient normally must have achieved at least a 3.35 GPA, both in the major and overall. The recipient shall also display those characteristics of scholarship, character, and leadership which, in the judgment of the selection committee, are considered essential for success in the field of English.

Contact the English Department Programs Office at 765-285-8415 with questions.

Please complete and submit this application to: english@bsu.edu
Elizabeth Martin Scholarship Application
BSU Department of English
Application Deadline: 5:00 p.m. March 20

Name:

Student ID #:

Address:

Email:

Phone:

English Major: ___Departmental ___Teaching ___

Academic record at the end of Fall Semester 2017:

Total Hours:____ Overall GPA:____ Hours in English:____ English GPA:____ Spring English Hours:____

Do you currently hold another English Department scholarship? ___Yes ___No
If so, which one?

In addition to completing this form, attach a 500 word maximum essay describing your career goals and why you chose to be an English major to prepare you for that career. You need to submit letters of recommendation from two Ball State faculty members. List the names of the faculty members from whom you have requested letters:

1.

2.

Please direct your recommenders to submit their letters to english@bsu.edu.

Applicant's Signature:_________________________ Date:_________