Other Professional and/or Academic Organization Activities

1. Public/community, Kenwood Woman's Club Scholarship Committee 2007, These scholarships are for students wishing to attend college. They are awarded on three basis, student's need, the student's academic promise as shown by his academic record, and the student's activities during high school (e.g., community service, work, curricular activities, etc.,). (April 2008).
2. Other, IKASUCON, 2007 Ft. Wayne, IN, Panelist, The Power Point presentation I delivered was very well received by these high school and college age students. Many of them are interested in animation, cartooning, drama, art, novels and graphic novels. Their were approximately 50 young adults there who were avidly following the presentation and had numerous questions after the presentation. These young students are potentially a market for our Communication College which I informed them on. Many are interested in programs we have here. (August 2007).
