College of Fine Arts' Distinctions

- The School of Music offers a music media production program that blends science and art, encouraging students to explore music with the latest digital technology.
- Ball State students provide one-on-one support and preparation for children with special needs for an audience of more than 800 with the Prism Project, founded in 2009.
- Since 2004, students from the Department of Theatre and Dance have been invited as national qualifiers to the yearly Kennedy Center American College Theater Festival, one of the nation's premier events for collegiate theater programs.
- School of Art students experience world-class facilities that support the full range of artistic expression at the bachelor of arts, bachelor of fine arts, and master of fine arts levels. The 9,254-square-foot Marilyn K. Glick Center for Glass is a premier glassmaking facility, and our animation program is nationally ranked.
- The David Owsley Museum of Art (DOMA) displays works in a gallery space that exceeds 26,500 square feet. Its collection is from around the world, spanning ancient history to modern times. DOMA loans work for major exhibitions at museums across the country and overseas, including the Louvre Museum in Paris and the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York.
- Emens Auditorium, Pruis Hall, and the Brown Family Amphitheater provide state-of-the-art stage/productions and event planning and support services. The facilities offer an array of guest artists, productions, and celebrities of national and international prominence who represent various genres of live performance and entertainment from traditional to the innovative.
