1. The $1,000 will be split up into two (2) $500 mini-grants, that members of the IFC community can apply for.

2. The mini-grants must be used to pay for programming put on by the NIC, or the member chapter NHQ.
Section II. The fraternity social management policies and procedures:

A. If members of the Social Evaluation Team do not fulfill their responsibilities as stated in the Ball State University Greek Community Risk Management Policy; this will result in the individual being called to a hearing with the Interfraternity Council Judicial Board of Review.
Appendix A: Academic Policy

Section I. Purpose
A. The purpose of this program is to set new members on the right path towards academic success. Through this program we hope to improve the academic well-being of new members, by instilling healthy study habits and providing them with the knowledge of academic programs offered by the University.

Section II. New Members:
A. Each new member is required to participate in three (3) programs provided by the Learning Center in the North Quad.

B. There are five (5) options from which three (3) programs need to be completed before the last week of the semester the new member initiates. These options are as follows.

1. Attend any of the workshops that are offered at the Learning Center in the North Quad.
   a. This option can count towards all three (3) programs needed as long as they are different workshops.

2. Attend tutoring sessions through the Learning Center for a class.
   a. This option can count towards all three (3) programs needed.

3. Attend a Supplemental Instruction (SI) session already offered by the Learning Center.
   a. This option can count towards all three (3) programs needed as long as the Supplemental Instruction (SI) are for three (3) different classes.

4. Meet with your academic advisor.
   a. This option may only be used one (1) time.

5. Chapters may set up a meeting at the career center.
   a. This option may only be used one (1) time.

C. Recording attendance at programs:

1. When attending Learning Center workshops you must sign in and sign out on the Interfraternity Council (IFC) sign in sheet.

2. For tutoring sessions, meeting with academic advisors, and career advisors, members must fill out one (1) of the “Additional Workshop” forms that are found in the Office of Greek Life (OGL), or on the Greek Life website.
   a. These must be turned into the IFC Vice President of Programming before the finals week of that semester.
b. The Interfraternity Council (IFC) New Member Scholarship Program additional workshop form can also be found on the Greek Life website.

D. Incentives and Consequences:

1. Incentives:
   a. If a chapter has 90 percent attendance or higher, then that chapter is exempt from the consequences below.
   b. If a chapter has 90 percent attendance, a letter of achievement will be sent to the Vice President of Student Affairs, chapter advisors, and the fraternity headquarters.

2. Consequences:
   a. For each new member that does not complete the requirement there will be a $10 fine.
   b. The chapters that do not submit a scholarship plan by the deadline will have their IFC voting privileges revoked until they have submitted a satisfactory scholarship plan.

E. IFC Scholarship:

1. All fines from the New Member Scholarship Program will go towards a scholarship for non-Greek male freshmen.

2. The IFC Scholarship application and selection for the scholarship winner will be decided by a committee made up of five (5) IFC chapter members.
   a. The members of the IFC Scholarship committee will be chosen by the IFC Executive Council.
   b. IFC Vice President of Programming will appoint the chair of the IFC scholarship committee.

F. Exceptions:

1. New members that are of upperclassman status (sophomore and higher) with a 3.0 cumulative GPA of higher do not have to participate in this program.

2. All exemptions must be granted by the IFC Executive Council.

G. The IFC Vice President of Programming and the Director of the Learning Center reserves the right to receive attendance information relating to this program and to report these back to the respective chapter’s scholarship chairman.
Appendix B: Judicial Board of Review Policy

I. Purpose:

A. There shall be a judicial community IFC body known as the Judicial Board of Review (hereafter, “JBR”) whose primary purpose shall be educational and to ensure adherence to all fraternity related policies. The JBR will serve to establish quasi-judicial precedents, hear cases brought before it, and forestall, prevent, and avoid unacceptable conduct; while implementing IFC policies and university rules and regulations and to maintain appropriate standards of conduct.

II. Jurisdiction:

A. The JBR has jurisdiction over all Interfraternity Council member organizations, including local and national fraternities and any group petitioning for membership into the Interfraternity Council.

B. The JBR has jurisdiction over all organizations recognized by IFC. Violations by members may result in disciplinary action against individuals and/or organizations.

C. The JBR may hold hearings concerning, but not limited to, the following:

1. Alcohol violations;
2. Vandalism;
3. Fight or other council policy violation;
4. Hazing;
5. Actions which create the appearance of impropriety to the Greek Community and/or Ball State University, or which may create liability for an Interfraternity Council member organization, the Interfraternity Council, or Ball State University;
6. Violations of state and local law;
7. Recruitment infractions; and
8. Violations of the Ball State University Greek Community Risk Management Policy.

D. The JBR may hear any case which the Chief Justice and the Assistant Director of Student Life deem appropriate if jurisdiction applies and/or if charges are filed.

E. In certain instances, it may be necessary for the university to take immediate disciplinary action. This may be necessary when, in the opinion of the university, the operations of the organization(s) involved may constitute a threat or disruption of the normal academic process of the university. Upon investigation of charges by the university, the case may then be referred back to the JBR.

F. The jurisdiction of the JBR is not necessarily limited to the original complaint; it may include other offenses revealed during a hearing. If a new offense is revealed, the individual(s), or the chapter involved may waive the right to seven (7) days advance notification of a hearing and have the decision rendered at the hearing.
III. Composition:

A. The Interfraternity Council JBR Hearing Board shall consist of members selected by VP of Internal Affairs by means of an application and interview process. Applicants must have a cumulative G.P.A. of a 2.7 or higher and be an initiated member of an IFC organization for at least one whole year.

B. Each hearing board member shall serve tenure until graduation. Prior to graduation, a board member must notify the VP of Internal Affairs to allow for replacement.

C. An IFC executive officer may not serve as a hearing board member for the JBR unless he is fulfilling the role of Chief Justice.

D. The Vice-President of Internal Affairs shall serve as Chief Justice of the JBR.

E. If the Chief Justice’s fraternity is involved in a case brought before the (JBR), then a new chief justice will be appointed based on rank stated in Article V I, Section I of the Constitution.

F. When a hearing is called, in addition to the Chief Justice, the JBR will consist of three (3) to five (5) hearing board members, who will be in good standing with the IFC. Thereafter, each hearing board member appointed must go through one IFC training program each year.

G. A hearing board member serving on the JBR may not be a member of the fraternity involved in the case being heard by the JBR.

H. A member of the Hearing Board engaging in disorderly conduct can be removed from the hearing itself, by the Chief Justice.

I. The Judicial Hearing Board may find the accused responsible or not responsible by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of all justices.

J. A Judicial Board Member may be removed from the Judicial Board of Review by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of IFC exec.

K. An Advisor from the Office of Greek Life shall serve as an ex-officio non-voting member of the JBR and shall serve in an advisory capacity concerning IFC and university guidelines.

L. A Judicial Board Justice, not in good standing with IFC, shall not serve on the board.

IV. Pre-Hearing Procedures:

A. The IFC President, an Advisor from the Office of Greek Life, any fraternity or sorority member, any Ball State University student or faculty member, or any member of the Muncie community or public-at-large may bring charges against a fraternity or fraternity member(s).

B. In order to bring charges before the JBR, an Incident Report Form must be submitted to an Advisor from the Office of Greek Life or the Chief Justice no more than thirty (30) school days after the alleged incident.
C. Upon receipt of an Incident Report Form, an Advisor from the Office of Greek Life shall conduct an investigation as per the Ball State University Student Affairs Disciplinary Jurisdiction Memorandum of Understanding.

D. Upon completion of the formal investigation and receipt of the Investigation Summary Report, the IFC President, Chief Justice, Vice President of Risk Reduction, and an Advisor from the Office of Greek Life shall decide whether charges shall or shall not be brought before the JBR.

E. If a case is brought before the JBR, the Chief Justice shall, by way of letter, notify the chapter(s) president and/or executive member(s) of the accusations no more than seven (7) school days after receiving the completed Investigation Summary Report.

F. The letter shall be delivered to the member or chapter (e.g., delivered to a chapter representative on the executive council of their respected fraternity) by hand and by e-mail.

G. The letter shall specify a hearing date at least seven (7) school days after the date the letter is received (unless the accused fraternity should request an earlier hearing date) and shall direct the organization (throughout its appointed representatives) to appear at the hearing.

H. The letter shall also:

1. Describe the alleged violation; and
2. Advise the organization of its rights to:
   a. A private hearing;
   b. Appear at the hearing with an advisor;
   c. Present testimony of witnesses, documentation and other information, and to argue on its own behalf; and
   d. Appeal.

V. Hearing Procedures:

A. The Chief Justice shall serve as the spokesman and moderator for the JBR. The Chief Justice shall also be responsible, when requested, for informing any member of the JBR or the organization(s) involved in the case about the judicial process.

B. The Chief Justice of the JBR shall serve as Recording Secretary for all JBR hearings. Records from all hearings will be kept on file in the Office of Greek Life. Records will be kept on audiotape, and will be made available only to official representatives of those parties involved.

C. The president of the fraternity charged with misconduct, or another member designated as spokesman for the chapter, has the right to be present to hear and question all witnesses through the Chief Justice and to examine all information. Only the spokesperson(s) can question witnesses and/or examine information.

D. There must be between three (3) and five (5) hearing board members present during a hearing. The Chief Justice will vote only in the event of a tie among the hearing board members.
E. Each chapter is entitled to have two (2) spokespersons, which must be undergraduate active members of the chapter. If the spokesman is not the chapter president, the president may still attend hearings as an observer.

F. The fraternity/individual charged with misconduct has the right to have an advisor, who is not an undergraduate student affiliated with the chapter, present during the hearings for only the discussion of the incident report and the questioning. Not during the discussion of the judicial board in private to decide sanctions, if any, for the chapter. An advisor, even if he/she is an attorney, may not present information, question witness(s), or address the JBR; his/her role is to simply advise the fraternity/individual.

G. The accused party shall have the same rights as the fraternity/individual charged with misconduct (e.g., the right to have the fraternity/sorority president present during the hearings, the right to call witness(s), and the right to have an advisor present).

H. Witnesses are permitted to be present during the hearing only while presenting information.

I. The JBR has the right to call before it all witness(s) and/or documentary information it considers to be essential to rendering a decision.

J. If a chapter’s or an individual’s representative fails to appear at the hearing, the JBR, by way of a majority vote, will select one (1) of the following courses of action:

1. Reschedule the hearing based on the excuse of an absence; or
2. Render a decision based on the available information.

K. The Judicial Board typical format for a typical hearing includes:

1. Pre-hearing discussion in executive session by the JBR.
2. The hearing is called to order by the Chief Justice.
3. Introductions of hearing participants.
4. Clarification of the judicial process, and charges.
5. Presentation of information and testimony of witness(s) against a chapter/individual (witness(s) placed under oath).
6. Cross-examination of witness(s) by the board members.
7. Re-cross-examination of witness(s) by the accused.
8. Presentation of information and testimony of witness(s) on behalf of a chapter/individual (witness(s) placed under oath).
9. Cross-examination of witness(s) by the board members.
10. Re-cross-examination of witness(s) by the accused.
11. Concluding statements by the spokesman(s) for the parties involved, accused chapter or individual speaking last.

12. Deliberations by the JBR in executive session.

L. The prehearing discussion and post hearing deliberation will be private; only the JBR members may be present.

M. A chapter/individual will be found responsible of a violation when, in the determination of the hearing board members, there is clear and convincing information substantiating a decision of responsibility.

N. The chapter/individual(s) involved, and the chapter adviser shall be sent written notification of the results of the JBR hearings within seven (7) school days of the hearing by the JBR. The decision letter shall also contain information about sanctions and the process of appeal.

VI. Disciplinary Sanctions:

A. After hearing the case, the JBR shall render one (1) of two (2) decisions. First, the JBR may determine that the chapter is not responsible of its alleged violations. Second, the JBR may determine that the chapter is responsible of a finding violation. If chapter is found responsible, a disciplinary sanction will be imposed. A finding of “responsible” may be used in future cases brought before the JBR for purposes of information for determining a sanction.

B. The JBR shall have the authority to issue sanctions to a chapter found in violation of policies and regulations (probation does not necessarily involve any loss of privileges). Sanctions should be education based and promote adherence to all policies and regulations.

1. A written reprimand indicating that the chapter or individual's actions were inappropriate and subsequent infractions should not occur, to be signed by the chapter president and one other executive council member.

2. Probation, defined as a period of time not to exceed one (1) year.

3. Suspension of certain privileges including but not limited to:
   a. Host or participate in any social activity;
   b. Voting privileges at IFC; etc.

4. Participation, limit, or restricted participation in certain events such as:
   a. Homecoming
   b. Greek Week
   c. Philanthropic events

5. Attend/Host educational seminars
   a. Educational

6. Other penalties imposed alone or in addition to any other sanctions, which the JBR deems appropriate.

VII. Method of Appeals:

Interfraternity Council Bylaws
A. A chapter or individual found responsible by the JBR may appeal the decision to the Office of Greek Life.

B. A chapter or individual desiring to appeal must submit a properly completed Signed Document form to an Advisor from the Office of Greek Life or the Chief Justice within five (5) school days after receiving the written decision.

C. A signed document must state one (1) or more of the following grounds and the specific rationale for appealing on those grounds:

1. The sanction was arbitrary, capricious, and in abuse of discretion.

2. There is significant new information affecting the probable outcome of a case.

3. The findings were not supported by substantial information.

4. The decision of the JBR was in excess of its jurisdiction.

5. The JBR erred in its interpretation of any university or IFC policy or regulation.

APPENDIX E: Expansion Policy

Section I. Formulation of Expansion Committee

A. The expansion committee and the IFC shall work to the best of their ability to meet the standards set by the North American Interfraternity Conference while maintaining the integrity of the organization.

B. The Interfraternity Executive Council will appoint a standing committee with a chairman chosen by the IFC Vice President of Recruitment and elected by the IFC executive board. The committee shall be comprised of:

1. Each member fraternity will be allowed to have one (1) representative on the committee. Representatives must be current members in good standing or an alumni chapter advisor in good standing.

2. At least two (2) representatives from the Office of Greek Life at Ball State University shall be on the committee.

3. The chair will report to the IFC Vice President of Recruitment.

Section II. Responsibilities of the Expansion Committee

A. The responsibilities of the Expansion Committee shall include:

1. Research and solicit (inter)national fraternities to invite to Ball State University as outlined by Section III of this Article.

2. Work together to recommend a(n) (inter)national fraternity for expansion at Ball State University. Recommendations will be made to the Office of Greek Life for administrative approval.

3. To act as liaison between proposed fraternities’ (inter)national representatives and IFC.

4. To make reports to IFC roundtable concerning the development of proposed fraternities.

5. Inform potential fraternities of requirements and steps they must take to achieve full recognition, as laid out in this policy.

Section III. Solicitation and Selection Process

A. Solicitation Process

1. The Expansion Committee shall select a group of (inter)national fraternities to solicit expansion petitions.
a. No less than two (2) (inter)nationally affiliated fraternities shall be selected for solicitation.

b. (Inter)Nationally affiliated fraternities who have expressed interest in Ball State University shall be given priority during the selection process.

2. Letters to the selected groups shall be sent or appropriate correspondence shall be made immediately after the groups have been selected.

a. The letter shall outline the process and timeline for expansion at Ball State University. A request for all necessary expansion materials, including constitution and bylaws, a letter stating why the fraternity would like to expand at Ball State, proof of alumni committed to involvement in the colony, and an expansion plan shall be made to each selected fraternity.

3. Once all interested (inter)national fraternities have supplied the Expansion Committee with the requested materials, the committee shall choose an organization(s) for an on campus presentation.

4. Once all selected groups have made a presentation or been given the opportunity to present, the Expansion Committee shall determine whether or not to select one (1) or more of the (inter)national fraternities to expand and form a colony at Ball State University as an associate member of the IFC.

a. The Expansion Committee, selected fraternity(s), and the Ball State administration will work together to determine an appropriate timeline for the formation of the new colony.

Section IV. Requests for expansion made to the IFC

A. When a request for expansion is made to the IFC, the Expansion Committee shall review the request with the Office of Greek Life to determine the appropriate action.

1. A request for all expansion must include all necessary expansion materials, including constitution and bylaws, proof of alumni committed to involvement in the colony and a proposed plan for expansion.

B. Upon reviewing all the materials presented to the Expansion Committee, the committee will determine whether or not to invite the organization to make an on campus presentation.

1. The committee will send a letter or appropriate correspondence to the organization within one (1) week of their decision.
C. Once the selected group has made a presentation or been given the opportunity to present, the Expansion Committee shall determine whether or not to select the (inter)national fraternity to expand and form a colony at Ball State University as an associate member of the IFC.

1. The Expansion Committee, selected fraternity(s), and the Ball State administration will work together to determine an appropriate timeline for the formation of the new colony and associate membership in the IFC.

D. If a group of students is interested in forming a colony of a new (inter)national fraternity, they must petition (inter)national officers to follow expansion rules outlined in Article IV. Only after (inter)national fraternity is accepted as an associate member are the students then allowed to associate with the (inter)national fraternity.

Section V. Requirements Before Expansion

A. These requirements must be met by a(n) (inter)national fraternity before any action by the IFC will take place:

1. The appropriate paperwork, including the intent to organize form, must be completed and approved.

2. The group must have a chapter advisor and furnish his or her contact information to the Office of Greek Life.

3. Groups that are not recognized by the Office of Greek Life are not permitted to recruit and associate students from Ball State University.

   a. Non-recognized groups that conduct underground recruitment and pledging of any Ball State University student(s) will not be permitted to petition IFC for recognition for a minimum of four (4) years.
Appendix F: Social Media Policy

Section I: Purpose

A. The purpose of this policy is to dictate which Greek council officers have access to the Ball State Greek social media accounts to ensure a professional and appropriate use of each account.

Section II: Delegation of account access

A. The Interfraternity Council (IFC), Panhellenic Council (PHC), and National Panhellenic Council (NPHC) Presidents shall have access to all Ball State Greek social media accounts; including, but not limited to Twitter, Facebook, and Tumblr.

   1. Each council President shall have the authority to grant limited account access to any Executive Officer when s/he deems it necessary.

   2. Each council President shall have the authority to grant limited account access to any third party organization, whose actions are to be congruent with this policy.

B. The IFC and PHC VP of Public Relations shall have access to all the social media accounts.

C. The IFC and PHC VP of Recruitment shall have access to the Facebook and Twitter accounts.

Section III: Guidelines

A. At the beginning of each council’s term, the Presidents of IFC, PHC, and NPHC shall establish each social media account password.

B. Use of any Ball State Greek social media account shall follow the guidelines listed hereafter:

   1. Any social media publication should be congruent with each council’s respective Code of Ethics and shall not violate any council’s Constitution or Bylaws.

   2. Each Executive Officer granted access shall limit their use of the social media accounts to only those publications in furtherance of their duties and responsibilities.

   3. No publication shall be posted that could be construed to be:

      a. Discriminatory to any group of people or organization

      b. Biased, or unfair to the other Greek councils

      c. Unprofessional in manner or in substance
4. Any publications that stray from these guidelines may result in a loss of account privileges, as deemed necessary by each council’s President.

5. Any publications from a council President that stray from these guidelines may result in a loss of privileges, as deemed necessary by a majority of each council’s Executive Committee.
APPENDIX G: Encumbrance Policy

The student (and his parent or guardian if he is a minor) expressly agrees that, at the request of the fraternity chapter or house corporation, Ball State University may place a hold on the records of the student for failure to pay, when due, all room rental, parlor/out-of-house fees, and board charges.

The student (and his parent or guardian if he is a minor) expressly authorizes Ball State University to make the encumbrance with full knowledge that the encumbrance includes, but is not limited to:

- Denial of the student’s ability to obtain a copy of his transcript of academic records
- Denial of the student’s ability to register for future classes
- Denial of the student’s ability to make changes to his schedule (i.e. drops/adds)
- Denial of the student’s ability to receive a diploma

The encumbrance does not impair or limit the fraternity/sorority chapter or house corporation from taking legal action with respect to the unpaid obligations for which the encumbrance was made. The encumbrance procedure may not apply to any obligations that may be incurred by the student after he/she ceases to be a student at Ball State University.
