

BALL STATE UNIVERSITY INTERFRATERNITY COUNCIL POSITION STATEMENT

VANDALISM AND PRANKS

WHEREAS, The current risk management policy does not provide a stance against public displays of inappropriate behavior.

WHEREAS, Not only is this inappropriate behavior, this behavior can be damaging and destructive to personal property and adds to the negative view of Greeks on campus.

WHEREAS, Greek members should not participate or involve themselves in such types of activities and should hold other members accountable for participation in these events.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, That the Ball State University Interfraternity Council delegation strongly discourages any IFC fraternity man from participating in vandalism and/or pranks against other fraternities and encourages individual fraternities to hold its members accountable if those members do participate in said activities.
