

BALL STATE UNIVERSITY INTERFRATERNITY COUNCIL POSITION STATEMENT

VIOLENCE AND FIGHTING

WHEREAS, The current risk management policy does not provide a stance against public displays of inappropriate behavior.

WHEREAS, Violence and fighting are not to be tolerated within the community especially when they involve members from other chapters.

WHEREAS, While fun rivalry and competition are encouraged between IFC chapters and outside organizations. These should be kept under control and done within safe environments

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, That the Ball State University Interfraternity Council delegation strongly discourages any IFC fraternity man from fighting and encourages individual fraternities to hold its members accountable if those members engage in violent behavior with other fraternity members.
