Credit will be applied to your account for qualifying leases during the last month of the signed contract, typically in April. Resident must be in good standing (payment, conduct, and policy-wise) with the university; if there are any late or missed rent payments, credit will be applied to the balance automatically and will be forfeited for future use. This offer is only available to current residents. Resident may refer an unlimited number of referrals. For more details, contact aptoffice@bsu.edu
