Minor in Scuba

College of Health · School of Kinesiology

About the Program

Our minor in scuba will prepare you for a career that requires diving for investigative, research, or rescue-related work. You’ll also get the basics required to receive further training to become a/an:

- Technical diving professional
- Scientific diver
- Rescue diver
- Other diving professional

This Program Works Well with Majors in:

- Archaeology
- Criminology
- Biology
- Other investigation or rescue work

Curriculum Requirements

Common core, 12 credits:
- AQUA 190 Introduction to Aquatics (3)
- AQUA 216 Lifeguard Training (3)
- AQUA 315 Water Safety Instructor (WSI) (3)
- AQUA 454 Swimming Pool Operation and Maintenance (3)

Plus:
- AQUA 220 Open Water Scuba (2)
- AQUA 221 Advanced SCUBA Diver (2)
- AQUA 355 Internship in Aquatics (1 TO 3)

Total Credits: 18

Connect With Us

Leland Yarger, M.S.
Coordinator of the Aquatics Program
ljyarger@bsu.edu

www.bsu.edu/kinesiology

The information presented here, correct at the time of publication, is subject to change. Ball State University practices equal opportunity in education and employment and is strongly and actively committed to diversity within its community. 555900-17 mc