Biographical Note:
Wayne McClellan Weber, FAIA (1905-1984), was an accomplished architect, photographer, and lover of covered bridges. He practiced architecture under his own name to about 1956, then in partnership with Mike Curry as Weber & Curry, Architects, in Terre Haute, Indiana, from about 1956 to about 1965. Later he worked with Walter Scholer & Associates in Lafayette, Indiana (ca. 1965-1972). He also did business as an architectural photographer, including work for Indianapolis architectural firms Wright, Porteous & Lowe (ca. 1971-75) and Pecsok, Jelliffe & Randall (ca. 1972-73). He became a member of the American Institute of Architects (AIA) in 1950 and was named a Fellow of the AIA in 1966.

Weber began systematically photographing Indiana’s covered bridges about 1957. That led to his long-time membership in the Indiana Covered Bridge Society and to the publication of two books: Covered Bridges in Indiana (Midland, Mich., 1977) and The Covered Bridges of Parke County, Indiana (Indianapolis, 1980).
