Greetings Musicians

I hope you all had a great summer. We have missed you! We look forward to meeting new students and to helping all of you in person, via phone, or e-mail. There are three scheduled Music Refreshser workshop sessions in Bracken Library Room 225: Thursday, August 27, Tuesday, September 1, and Wednesday September 2. You can register for these or other library sessions on the Libraries’ calendar: http://bsu.libcal.com/calendar/workshops You can also e-mail me to set up an appointment to talk about your research needs: aledmonds@bsu.edu

This new collection of essays explores methodological and philosophical issues facing those who study music of the past in non-Western cultures, and includes studies of several past musical cultures of the world.

Featured Book:

Conducting for a New Era, by Edwin Roxburgh.
MT 85 .R727 2014

This book and accompanying DVD will become a staple for conductors and composers. In the 20th Century, rhythmic innovations by modernist composers presented challenges for conductors and ensembles. The book covers the history of conducting during the period, with case studies from Boulez, Stockhausen, Messiaen and Birtwistle and examples from many others. The DVD includes demonstrations of basic techniques and of Boulez’ _Le Marteau sans maître._

New on the Music Collection Counter: Guide to Genres

The Music Collection’s 20,000 CDs are kept behind the circulation counter. This makes the collection secure, but prevents retail-style browsing. Media Finders for Non-Classical Music search compact discs by styles and genres, by date or country, but you have to be logged on to a computer.

To help people browse without using a computer, we have compiled lists to keep in a notebook at the counter.

Lists include:
- Top 200 circulating CDs
- Blues
- Country Classics
- Jazz in the 2000s
- K-Pop
- Movie Soundtracks
- Musicals
- Recent Popular Music
- Rock Classics
- Amy’s Favorites
