Greetings, musicians!

This Summer the University Libraries welcomed Dean Shaw, continued to deal with the aftermath of a flood that affected the West side of the 2nd, 3rd, and 4th floors, and lived with the sounds of progress — fire sprinkler replacement and masonry work on the exterior. Newly acquired materials include a generous donation of string chamber music sets, several fake books from the “Real Book” series, and an anthology series of opera arias with IPA and recorded diction lessons.

We look forward to a busy Fall Semester, with new workshops and series offered for applied students and faculty. Drop me a line if you want a special workshop for your class or studio, too!

— Amy Edmonds

Welcome Dean Shaw

Matthew Shaw, Dean of University Libraries, returned to Ball State June 1, 2016 after serving as Director of the Krannert Memorial Library at the University of Indianapolis. Mr. Shaw formerly served at the Ball State University Libraries (2004-2013) in various roles related to collection development and access services. He will continue the alignment of the Ball State University Libraries collections, services, and spaces with the emerging needs of faculty and students to support teaching and learning. Mr. Shaw is also an organist and an armchair student of hymnology.

Bracken Library Flood

The West side of Bracken Library experienced a flooding event due to a burst pipe on a rooftop air conditioning unit. A small percentage of library materials were so badly damaged that they had to be discarded, but none were music or music technology related, fortunately. Most of the damaged books were on the Fourth Floor. The discarded books will be replaced when possible. Jeremiah Smith, the Music Collection night supervisor, was one of many staff members who were part of the recovery effort.

The People United Will Never Be Divided: 36 Variations on a Chilean Song, by Frederic Rzewski, performed by Ursula Oppens, piano
Compact Disc 22836

In 1976 Ursula Oppens commissioned a set of variations from Rzewski, intending them to be paired with the famous Diabelli Variations by Beethoven. These variations are based on a protest song popular during the dictatorship of Augusto Pinochet in the 1970s. This CD is a reissue of the 1979 premiere recording, which was nominated for a Grammy Award.

Guitar Boogie, (1948) by Arthur Smith
Compact Disc 22851

“Guitar Boogie” is considered by many to be the first true “rock ‘n’ roll” song. Arthur Smith never became a true rock artist but his idea to play boogie woogie on guitar inspired guitarists, such as Carl Perkins and Chuck Berry, and rock music was born.

Guitar Boogie, (1948) by Arthur Smith
Compact Disc 22853

Cirque du Soleil has released the music for its new traveling show, Toruk. World music, classical and experimental sounds, and a children’s choir depict an alternate universe inspired by James Cameron’s film, Avatar.
