Technical Sergeant Justin Stamps, a native of Smyrna, Tennessee, is a trumpeter with the United States Air Force Band. He holds degrees from Roosevelt University's Chicago College of Performing Arts & the University of North Carolina- Greensboro & has completed doctoral coursework at the University of Cincinnati College-Conservatory of Music. His primary teachers include Mark Ridenour (Chicago Symphony Orchestra) & Phil Collins (Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra). Additionally, he has worked with Marie

Speziale and Adolph "Bud" Herseth. Prior to joining the United States Air Force in 2014, TSgt Stamps was assistant principal trumpet of the Boise Philharmonic and a member of the Boise Philharmonic Brass Quintet. He was an adjunct professor at Boise State University & a member of the Boise State Faculty Brass Quintet. TSgt Stamps frequently performs as a soloist and chamber musician & has performed with orchestras throughout the U.S. and abroad including the Dayton Philharmonic, Kentucky Symphony, and the Opera, Music, and Theatre Festival of Lucca (Italy). He can be heard on numerous Kindermusik International recordings. Additionally, he has served on the faculty of Northwest Nazarene University & Arts West Performing Arts High School and worked in various capacities for arts organizations such as the Interlochen Arts Camp, Eastern Music Festival, and the Chicago Youth Symphony Orchestra.

Stephen C. Campbell is assistant professor of music at Ball State University. Prior to his appointment, Stephen was a professional musician based in Cincinnati, OH since 2005. After finishing undergraduate and graduate studies at Stephen F. Austin State University, Stephen moved to Cincinnati to do post-graduate work at the University of Cincinnati, College, Conservatory of Music. Dr. Campbell is the principal trumpeter of the Lexington Philharmonic Orchestra, Lexington, KY; and associate principal trumpet of the West Virginia Symphony Orchestra, Charleston, WV. In addition to his duties in these orchestras, Stephen is often called upon to perform as an additional or substitute musician with ensembles including the Cincinnati Symphony and Pops Orchestras, Cincinnati Chamber Orchestra, and the Blue Ash Montgomery Orchestra, among others. Stephen also participates in chamber music with various ensembles. In addition to his active role as a professional musician, Stephen was previously visiting professor of music at Ball State University, Muncie, IN; Stephen F. Austin State University in Nacogdoches, TX; and adjunct instructor at Sinclair Community College, Dayton, OH. Stephen also served as a private instructor for the Bellbrook Public Schools, Bellbrook, OH, and Scott County Schools, Scott County, KY. Several of his private students have experienced success in state competition, solo contests, and have performed with him in professional orchestras.
