BIG NEWS!
The 58th Cast of the Ball State University Singers has been invited to perform at Carnegie Hall! Former director and Ball State alumnus Dr. Michael Davis will be conducting Vaughan Williams’ Dona Nobis Pacem, and has asked the University Singers to join him and the Indianapolis Symphonic Choir in New York for this history-making event. If you would like to support the University Singers in this endeavor, please see the donation information on the back/last page.
Please join us in the Mueller Lobby after tonight’s performance to meet the cast

FROM THE PRODUCER...
On behalf of the entire cast of the Ball State University Singers, I would like to thank you for being a part of this wonderful and very special night! We realize that times are difficult, and often very uncertain, and we sincerely appreciate that you were here to play such an important part in helping us kick off our 58th season! We’re so happy that we were able to entertain you, and we hope that we were able to bring you some joy and laughter tonight. It is our privilege to share in this experience with you, as we do what we’ve always done for nearly 60 years... entertain an amazing audience such as you! Thank you for being here tonight, and we hope to see you at many future performances!
