

BALL STATE UNIVERSITY

Master of Arts in Career and Technical Education
Family and Consumer Sciences Track
Pathway: Hospitality & Food Production

Professional Core (15 hours)
Courses	Course Description	Semester(s) Typically Offered:
BED 620	Improvement of Instruction with Technology (3 Credits)	Fall Semester Course
CTE 622	Instructional Materials and Strategies for Improvement of Instruction (3 Credits)	Fall Semester Course
CTE 625	Problems and Issues (3 Credits)	Spring Semester Course
CTE 692	Managing Work-Based Learning Programs (3 Credits)	Summer I Semester Course
BED 693	Principles, Organization and Administration of CTE (3 Credits)	Summer I Semester Course

Research Requirement (3 hours)
Course	Course Description	Semester(s) Typically Offered:
BED 616	Research Methods (3 Credits)	Spring Semester Course

Directed Electives (12 hours)
Courses	Course Description	Semester(s) Typically Offered:
CTE 660	Organizational Safety and Health	Summer 2 Semester Course
CTE 696	Coordinating Training Programs	Summer 2 Semester Course
NUTR 645	Nutrition and Food Policy
NUTR 650	Maternal and Infant Nutrition	Spring Semester Course
NUTR 651	Pediatric Nutrition	Summer 1 & Summer 2 Semester Course
NUTR 696	Seminar in Foods and Nutrition
ICS 695	Independent Study: Flexible Title Course (1-6 Credits)	*Must be approved by Program Adviser for flexible course title and course content related to FACS Education

NOTE: Nutrition courses would require some sort of nutrition courses or Introduction to Nutrition prior to taking these courses (Degree Candidates would have to had prior nutrition courses either undergraduate or graduate prior to enrolling in any NUTR coded course)

Contact the Master of Arts in Career and Technical Education Program Director Dr. Edward J. Lazaros with any questions: ejlazaros@bsu.edu or 317-588-8000.

Directed Elective Department Contact Phone Numbers:

Course Code Prefix	Contact Number
BED or CTE	317-588-8000
ICS	317-588-8000
NUTR	765-285-5961