Upcoming Schedule: Graduate Certificate in Sustainability

Sample a few 5-week courses or take the whole certificate. Our courses are taught by Ball State professors from the fields of architecture, geography, journalism, landscape architecture, natural resources and environmental management, technology, urban design and planning, water resources, and more. These are the same, engaged professors who teach on our main campus.

Fall 2019

Beginning Sept. 23
- SUST 520 Environmental Ethics
- SUST 524 Social and Environmental Justice
- SUST 529 Business Ethics and the Environment
- SUST 536 Ecological Economics

Beginning Oct. 28
- SUST 515 Food Systems
- SUST 523 Population
- SUST 528 Waste and Human Health
- SUST 535 Internal Communications

Spring 2020

Beginning Jan 6
- SUST 531 Modeling for Business
- SUST 512 Soil Resources
- SUST 519 Environmental Law
- SUST 511 Ecological Systems

Beginning Feb. 10
- SUST 521 Human Health and Well Being
- SUST 530 Analytics for Business
- SUST 514 Water Resources
- SUST 537 Media Relations

Beginning March 23
- SUST 513 Material Resources and Waste
- SUST 532 Reporting for Business
- SUST 510 Atmosphere
- SUST 516 Energy Resources

Note: The course schedule is correct at the time of publication but is subject to availability and changes. We encourage you to register early.
Apply today at bsu.edu/online/sustainability