MUKEISCO Peace Run

“Together we can win the race for peace and development,” Champion athlete, humanitarian, and peace activist Kip Keino. A cross-country race for peace, promoting peace across the country! Pictured below is the MUKEISCO planning team, including representatives from Athletics Kenya, Moi University, Indiana University-Purdue University, Indianapolis, Ball State University, and the village participants.

MUKEISCO was a cross-country race where everyone is welcome and everybody wins. It was an interfaith, intertribal, intercultural international race to promote peace and community development through the sport of running. Local, national, and international sponsors were supporting this event, including Moi University, Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis (Indiana, USA), Ball State University (Muncie, Indiana USA), Athletics Kenya, Rivatex, Efroyson Family Foundation, Forus shoes, AMPATH, Medals for Mettle. The race was held in the vicinity of the main campus of Moi University incorporating the villages of Kesses, Bindura/Tuluet, Leelmokwo, Talai Farm, Legetet - Kosirai, Lelmorok, Momoniat/Kaptum, Assururiet/Chesuriet, and Chebaiywo.

Structure of the Race

Athletics Kenya determined that there would be 12 categories of races from 12km, 10km, 8km, and fun runs of a shorter distance for the majority of contestants. There were nine teams anchored in the nine villages. They were named after the constituent parts or ingredients of long-term peace-building, namely love, joy, bliss, unity, harmony, hope, happiness, care, and trust. These teams had at their core a full representation of village members, young and old, boys and girls, men and women, seniors, mothers and babies, and people with disabilities. Each team was anchored by a champion runner from Eldoret, Kenya.
About Us

The Center for Peace and Conflict Studies is an interdisciplinary, university-based unit that pursues research on structural and direct forms of violence and conflict; implements nonviolent strategies to resolve conflict; offers mediation services to individuals, groups, and organizations; and trains people in conflict resolution, mediation, peace-building, leadership, meditation, and sportspersonship skills. It also pursues public diplomacy, sports diplomacy, and cultural exchange as part of local, regional, national, and international projects designed to promote mutual understanding, appreciation, cooperation, and respect.

To stay up to date with news and information about the Peace Center, call (765) 285-1622, email us to sign up for our discussion list, follow us on Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram, and sign up for our newsletters! We welcome hearing from you!