Department of Political Science Undergraduate Requirements for Student Internships
Dr. Sean Hildebrand – Internship Coordinator
269 North Quad or shildebrand@bsu.edu

You have the opportunity to gain real-world experience for credit towards your degree in Political Science! This can occur during the Spring, Summer, or Fall semester, but the legwork needs to occur far in advance to make it happen.

To receive credit for an internship you must meet the prerequisite requirements for the internship course. This includes the following that is dependent upon when you began the degree program at Ball State:

For those who started their Political Science degree at Ball State before the Fall 2019 Semester: Successful completion of POLS 130, 237, and one of the following courses: POLS 342, 350, 431, or 473. It is suggested that students also complete 5 “Career Ready” competencies via the Career Center – including the topics of Career Management, Professionalism/Work Ethic, Oral/Written Communication and two other topics of your choice.

For those who started their Political Science degree at Ball State during/after the Fall 2019 Semester: Successful completion of 15 Political Science credit hours. Verified completion of the 5 “Career Ready” competencies via the Career Center – including the topics of Career Management, Professionalism/Work Ethic, Oral/Written Communication and two other topics of your choice.

Students can apply to work during the spring semester as part of the legislative intern program at State Legislature in Indianapolis, get paid, and take additional degree courses in Indianapolis. Otherwise you need to find an internship on your own. Any internships the department hears about will be posted on our department’s Facebook page: https://www.facebook.com/ballstatepolisci/ and on the department webpage: https://www.bsu.edu/academics/collegesanddepartments/political-science/activities-opportunities/internships. The Ball State Career Center also offers information about internships as well as resume and cover letter development assistance, and they host the “Career Ready” competencies: http://cms.bsu.edu/about/administrativeoffices/careercenter. If you are considering staying in the state of Indiana to work, https://www.indianaintern.net is another strong resource for internship information.

Internships need to be related to the public sector in some way. This includes government, non-profit, policy, political, or lobbying organizations. You will need to start making phone calls and connecting with these organizations as soon as possible to get the internship established. In many cases this will include an interview process, so have a good resume and cover letter developed before applying.

Once you get things set up for an interview, you should meet with Dr. Sean Hildebrand (if you have not already) to express your interest in doing an internship. He will help you get ready for any interview you may have, and help you establish what will be necessary for you to register. for course credit once the internship is offered and accepted. Note: you must secure the internship, clear it with Dr. Hildebrand, and register for the course prior to the University’s Drop/Add deadline for the semester in which you complete the internship work to earn course credit. No late adds will be processed for internship credit.

During the internship, you will be required to work for a minimum of 200 hours during the semester (12-13 hours per week in the fall/spring, 20 hours per week in the summer) at the organization. Dr. Hildebrand will ask for contact information of your supervisor and will be in touch with them to make sure things are going as they should. Furthermore, you will keep a journal of your daily activities at the internship, and write a few short papers about your experience as it relates to what you’ve learned in class. All assignments are submitted and scored via Canvas.

The internship is one choice of capstone courses needed by Political Science majors to graduate. The other choice is a thesis (404). Students must successfully complete one or the other and declare your intention to pursue one or the other by the time you have completed 75 hours of course work towards your degree.

If you have any questions please contact Dr. Hildebrand via e-mail at shildebrand@bsu.edu, or stop by his office – 269 North Quad – during his open office hours.

Please note this flyer is for Political Science majors only – Legal Studies majors have their own requirements and should speak to Professor Brad Gideon (bmgideon@bsu.edu) directly about what is necessary for that program.

COVID-19 Addendum: Once you secure an internship please provide Dr. Hildebrand the contact information for your place of potential employment. The university is including additional requirements for internship hosts to comply with during the pandemic, and these details must be worked out prior to approving any internship. When on-site you must wear a face mask and comply with any other university and workplace requirements for the pandemic.
East Central Regional Planning District
Location: Muncie, IN
Semesters Available: Spring, Summer, Fall

The East Central Indiana Regional Planning District in Muncie has been awarded an EDA investment for the Recovery and Resiliency Project and is seeking multiple paid interns to be part of a three-year project to address the impact of COVID-19 and collaborate with community stakeholders and elected officials in the east central Indiana region.

Interns have an opportunity to work in multiple areas related to the grant, such as working with communities in the ECI area that were highly impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic to provide technical assistance and help them uncover what resources they can be leveraging to recover more quickly, serving as liaisons between ECI and local governments to identify and support projects that will speed up disaster-recovery, and interacting with existing business leaders to make them aware of opportunities from federal, state, and local governments that can help them recover from the pandemic.

Applications will be accepted on an ongoing basis. To apply please contact:
William Walters
ECIRPD Executive Director

Ball State Center for Peace and Conflict Studies

Location: Muncie, IN
Semesters Available: Fall, Spring

Are you looking for an internship that is conveniently located on campus? Are you looking to work in fields related to social justice, diversity, multiculturalism, human rights, public service/administration, communications, marketing, law, and/or peace?

Look no further!

The Center for Peace and Conflict Studies is looking for interns!

Who are we?

- We study, teach, and advocate for nonviolent philosophies, the prevention of conflict, and peacebuilding strategies shown to be successful.
- We seek to be a resource to BSU and the Central Indiana community regarding the peaceful resolution, reduction, and prevention of conflict.
- We offer an undergraduate minor compatible with undergraduate majors.

What would you do as a part of your internship?

- Contribute to our newsletters
- Help organize, promote, and participate in our monthly events
- Contribute, organize, promote, and participate in our major April Nonviolence Event
- Help with our social media accounts and the official website
- Enhance the presence of the Center on campus
- Strengthen, for instance, your writing, design, marketing, speaking, public relations, and leadership skills and knowledge
- Work towards making the world more peaceful and just!
Just so you know, this is an unpaid position. But…you can get credits for this internship if you are a Peace Studies minor. If you are not a Peace Studies minor, you also can earn internship credit in this minor or as part of many majors and other minors at Ball State!

Completing this internship has helped Ball State graduates to secure employment and entrance into graduate or professional schools. Several students from the Political Science department have interned with the Peace Center in the past and all have been thrilled with their experience!

If you are interested in applying for this internship, please email your cover letter and resume to the Peace Center graduate assistant, Brandon Miller, at b.miller1542@gmail.com. You can also email or call Brandon (765-285-1622) if you have any questions.

Indiana State Assembly

Location: Indianapolis, IN
Semesters Available: Spring

The Indiana General Assembly offers paid, spring-semester internships to recent and current college undergraduates as well as graduate students. Interns work directly with Indiana legislators at the Statehouse, located in downtown Indianapolis. This internship is a unique opportunity to gain practical knowledge of state government through active participation in the legislative process.

Appointments for interviews are made on a competitive basis, with attention given to the intern’s online application, academic record, work-related experience, and other skills that individuals may bring to the Indiana General Assembly. Students are encouraged to apply to both the House and the Senate of the party of their choice to increase chances of selection.

Students also have an opportunity via this internship to earn up to 9 credits by taking 2 additional classes beyond the internship course – contact Dr. Hildebrand for more details. The application deadline is October 31. Students can/should apply for both the House and Senate internship positions but must pick one political party (Democrats or Republicans – not both) when applying. Office of Senator Mike Braun (R)
Location: Indianapolis, IN and Washington, DC
Semesters Available: Spring, Summer, Fall

The Office of United States Senator Mike Braun is seeking applicants to serve as an intern in either the Washington, DC or Indianapolis, IN offices. The application for the internship can be found on our website.

Interns will have the opportunity to work directly with staff in a United States Senator’s office doing important work for the Senator’s constituents. Whether they serve in Washington or Indianapolis, they will gain valuable experience.

If you have any further questions or would like more information, you can contact the office’s internship coordinators directly. In Washington, DC, you can speak to Emma at 202-224-4814. In Indianapolis, you can speak to Josh at 317-822-8240.

The International Center
Location: Indianapolis, IN
Semesters Available: Spring, Summer, Fall

The International Center in Indianapolis has several internships that are available every semester. More details about specific internships can be found on their webpage: https://www.internationalcenter.org/employment/.
Besides the COO and executive assistant overseeing the program, each intern has their own direct supervisor for a custom orientation, organizational and community activity inclusion, schedule management, mid-point and final evaluation, and to welcome and ensure their success while interning. Weekly programming is calendared into each intern's schedule to ensure their professional development and that staff, leadership, Board, and community leaders are actively and consistently engaged with our interns. Topics encompass interviewing, networking, community advocacy, public service, social media, protocol, inter-cultural communication, and governance to name a few.

Interns readily participate in our staff and department meetings and company/client projects, attend community events and join us at organizational sponsored meal events or networking activities. Some projects and events include global protocol books for Governor led trips, State Department International Visitor Leadership Program itineraries, Finance Committee material preparation, relocation services for expats, Economic Club luncheon, Naturalization Ceremony presentation, Gleaners Community Service Day, Indy Chamber Roundtable, Paralympics host support, YPCI networking and IEDC receptions, cultural festivals and celebrations to name a few.

Delaware County CASA Program

Location: Muncie, IN
Semesters Available: Summer

CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocates) has the mission to advocate in the best interest of abused and neglected children in Delaware County. They offer internship opportunities that provide a wide range of experiences in this area. More information can be found at this webpage: https://delawarecountycasa.org/make-a-difference/internships/

Interested students must be 21 years of age, pass a background check, complete a pre-screening and interview process with CASA staff, and successfully complete 30 hours of pre-service training before the semester of the internship.

For more information contact Ashley Soldaat by phone at 765-747-7875 or via email at asoldaat@co.delaware.in.us. Interns are especially needed during the Summer 2021 semester.

NOTICE: Internships During COVID-19

There are times, such as during the current COVID-19 pandemic, when on-site internships cannot be provided with a traditional experience. Starting the summer of 2021, the Delaware County CASA Program will continue to support internships for local collegiate students. However, no field experience will be included. All internship work will take place in the CASA office. Should a student agree to participate in-person at our internship site, then adherence to current state and local COVID-19 directives, and CDC guidelines is required. Also, should a student decide to accept the in-person internship, it is done so at the student's own risk. Any interested student will still be expected to pass a background check, complete a pre-screening and interview process with CASA staff, and successfully complete 30 hours of pre-service training. training before the semester of the internship. Only one student per semester will be accepted and on a first come, first serve basis upon completion of all screening requirements.

Here is the updated list of links to internships that Dr. Hildebrand been able to compile via his sources. He will update the list every so often as he receives additional information.

As always you would need to do the legwork to make this or any internship happen. Start your by checking out the Political Science department’s internship webpage here: https://www.bsu.edu/academics/collegesanddepartments/political-science/activities-opportunities/internships. Also, follow/like the department’s Facebook page for up-to-date listings as they become available: https://www.facebook.com/ballstatepolisci/.

From there, a great resource to start your search here in the state of Indiana is Work & Learn Indiana: https://www.workandlearnindiana.com as well as the state of Indiana webpage: https://www.in.gov/spd/2335.htm.

If you’re thinking Washington, DC or elsewhere for an internship outside the state (and remote opportunities during the pandemic), check out http://www.internships.com. Otherwise, search on Google for national, state, and local government agencies, politicians, or non-profit organizations and they should have listings on their webpages as they become available.

Remember to contact Dr. Hildebrand at shildebrand@bsu.edu if you have any questions, or at least before interviewing just to make sure the internship falls under the parameters needed in the department for your degree (topic, job description, time requirements, etc.). Please remember to complete the Career Ready requirements via the BSU Career Center prior to obtaining an internship.
