

Recycling FAQ

Does Ball State University contract with disposal companies that are consistent with the R2:2013 standards (Standards for Responsible Recycling)?

Answer: Yes

Does Ball State University recycle electronic equipment?

Answer: Yes. When electronic equipment is determined to be at its end of life, it is recycled. Ball State University tracks the amount of recycled electronic equipment on a yearly basis.

Does Ball State University require all contracted recycling and disposal companies to maintain current industry standard certifications in regards to their sustainability practices?

Answer: Yes

Where do I go to view the University's internal Excess Catalog?

Answer: Excess Catalog

Where do I go if I want to excess an item (internally)?

Answer: Excess Form B450