Ball State University Recreation Services Plan

Recreation Services operations are returning to pre-pandemic levels with some changes to be aware of for the 2022-2023 Academic Year. The Recreation Services Plan includes:

- Locations, hours, programming, and general information
 - Guests/employees disinfecting equipment before and after use
 - Information regarding co-curricular clubs and intramural sports
1. Recreation Services' locations, hours, and programming will be determined based on available staffing.
 2. If an activity space requires a reservation, we will communicate via the Recreation Services website.
 3. Participants will clean and disinfect equipment before and after each use.
 4. Communal equipment check-out will be available. Patrons will need to clean the equipment before and after use.
 5. Locker rooms and lockers are available.
 6. Members will be encouraged to bring their own water bottles to their workouts.
 7. Normal cleaning and disinfecting schedules will be maintained with heightened cleaning schedules for high-touch public equipment/areas.
 8. Signage regarding hygiene will be promoted.
 9. Hand sanitizer dispensers are available.

Co-Curricular Activities (Sport Clubs/Intramural Sports)

1. As all sport clubs/intramural athletes are students, University guidelines will apply. Sport Club competitions, practices, and travel will be reviewed and determined based on best practices, current trends, and the unique needs and guidelines of Ball State University.
2. Intramural sports will remain active in the 2022-2023 Academic Year with offerings being based on staffing abilities.

General Information

1. Recreation Services will adhere to any changes to the University's Covid-19 Response.
2. Any changes regarding campus wide protocols and procedures will override any Recreation Services' protocols and procedures.
3. All patrons are required to adhere to all campus wide Covid-19 protocols and procedures. Non-compliance with campus Covid-19 protocols and procedures will be referred to the Student Code of Conduct or Recreation Services administrative staff.
