FRANCE

France is a country in northwestern Europe, and it includes many overseas regions and territories. Belgium, Luxembourg and Germany border France to the northeast, Andorra and Spain to the south and Switzerland and Italy to the east. French Guiana is an overseas department and region in South America. Many other French territories are islands in the Atlantic, Indian and Pacific Ocean. France has the fourth largest number of UNESCO World Heritage Sites. Around 83 million foreign visitors come every year to visit.
