7. Questions Directed to the Interim President
Interim President King followed up on a university communication he distributed earlier this month, in the wake of recent displays of intolerance on campus. He praised the campus community for its commitment to both honoring free speech and working actively to combat hate speech, while maintaining thoughtful dialogues about these issues. He encouraged the campus community to continue engaging these dialogues.

He summarized issues that are up for review by the Board: approving a Master’s in Social Work, approving a Bachelor’s in Architecture, and naming the Choral Hall in honor of the Hahn family. He also reported that the Board approved the parental leave policy, which will go into effect on July 1st.

Interim President King highlighted the value of the Titles and Promotions for Contract Faculty legislation as a means to recognize the hard work of dedicated contract faculty members and offer opportunities for growth.

Interim President King and Acting Provost Buck fielded questions about the practical implications of faculty losing the assistance of dedicated grant writers from the Center for International Development. They encouraged faculty to continue collaborative grant writing projects. Acting Provost Buck advised faculty to write project managers into the grant proposal process (as dedicated grant writers did in the past), and to take advantage of the resources in Sponsored Projects Administration as well.

Interim President King offered an overview of the timeline for replacing the Cooper Science building: the first phase of the replacement will be the Health Professions building and construction will begin this summer and continue through the next 18 mos. Negotiations are currently underway with the legislature about funding for the 2nd phase of the replacement. It’s likely that Physics & Astronomy will remain in Cooper Science in renovated space.

8. Question and Answer Period
There were no additional questions.

9. Unfinished Business
There was no unfinished business.

10. New Business
A. Stopping the Tenure Clock (Enclosure #4)
   The Senate reviewed the Stopping the Tenure Clock item, which revises the language in the handbook concerning conditions for extending the tenure evaluation period.

   A motion was made and seconded to consider the language as presented.
   Motion carried

   The Chair opened the floor for discussion.

   Questions/issues raised:
   • The decision to omit an appeals process
   • The rationale behind leaving out departmental P&T committees from the policy
   • Ensuring confidentiality for faculty facing circumstances that necessitate requests to stop the tenure clock
• Resolving potential disputes between faculty and their chairs over what conditions warrant stopping the tenure clock
• The rationale behind omitting the word “partner”
• Clarification that stopping the tenure clock could extend the tenure review period from 7 to 9 yrs.
• Clarification that the Council of Deans is fine with this legislation

A motion was made and seconded to approve the revisions as presented.

Motion carried

11. Other Items
   There were no other items.

12. Adjournment
   A motion was made and seconded to adjourn at 4:41 p.m.

Report of the Faculty Athletics Representative to the University Senate

To: University Senate
   Athletics Committee, Acting Provost and Acting Executive Vice President for Academic Affairs, Interim President King

Date: April 20, 2017

From: Charlene M. Alexander, Faculty Athletics Representative

Please accept the following report of activities important to the Mid American Conference (MAC), the NCAA, and our Athletic Department.

FAR:
- Served on the Mid American Conference Diversity & Inclusion Program committee. This committee started in 2016 under the direction and guidance of the MAC Council of Presidents and MAC Council of Directors of Athletics. The goals of the Program are to develop a pool of diverse candidates for collegiate job opportunities, provide educational opportunities for a diverse group of MAC athletics administrators and coaches, and promote diversity and inclusion in hiring within the Mid-American Conference. The committee developed a MAC statement on Diversity & Inclusion and requests that each member institution adopt the statement if one does not already exist on campus. Ball State University has a Statement on the Importance of Diversity and Inclusion.
- Continue to serve on the MAC executive committee for infractions.
- Attended the NCAA Division 1A FAR meeting in Dallas TX in September. The meeting focused on applying the new academic misconduct policy; the new Institutional Performance Program (IPP); the role of the FAR in inclusion efforts on campus; best use of NCAA research; and a review of the new governance structure.
- Continue to remind faculty of the Ball State University student travel guidelines and accommodations needed for completing exams and missed assignments due to athletic travel.

Student Athlete Support Services (SASS):
- Spring 2016, 65% of student athletes achieved a 3.0 term GPA and higher and 37 students had a perfect 4.0.
- There were also 152 named to the Dean’s List last Spring.
- Fall 2016, 67% of student athletes achieved a 3.0 term GPA and higher and 31 students had a perfect 4.0.
- There were also 140 named to the Dean’s List.
- Women’s Swimming and Men’s Tennis had the highest Semester Team GPA both semesters.
- SASS had a Learning Specialist position created and is in the process of hiring this position.
- SASS hired a Football Coordinator in July of 2016.
- Applied for the NCAA Research and Innovations Grant for the ongoing Baseline Educational Program.
- Applied for the MAC Student Development Grant to fund LASSI evaluations for student exploration and program efficiency measurements.

NCAA Topics:
- The NCAA priorities continue to be academics, student well-being and Fairness. Student-athlete graduation rates are the highest ever, with 80% of student athletes earning degrees. The NCAA continues to promote safety, excellence, and physical and mental well being for all student athletes. Additional focus on respect for student athletes, integrity and responsibility both on and off the field to prepare students for life are priorities.
- The NCAA again this year has focused on academic integrity and they are relying on institutions to review academic misconduct policies. The NCAA has articulated new guidelines for when academic integrity issues will be considered an NCAA violation.
MAC Topics:
- The MAC will host another MAC/NCAA Mental Health Summit initiated by the MAC Faculty Athletic Representatives, and will also host a Diversity Summit this year.

Ball State Topics:
- Ground breaking ceremonies were held in March for two new athletic facilities the Dr. Don Shondell Practice Center (volleyball and basketball) and the Yestingsmeier Golf Practice Facility.
- More than 35 athletic contests (and the Chirpies) were produced by Athletics and Sports Link via ESPN3.

CONTRACT FACULTY TITLES AND PROMOTIONS

PREAMBLE

Ball State University is committed to all faculty who aspire to teach and prepare the next generation of the workforce. Ball State University faculty include tenured, tenure-track, and contract faculty. In the 2015-2016 academic year, Ball State employed 1,017 faculty including 351 contract faculty. Many contract faculty at Ball State make extraordinary contributions. They have won awards of distinction at the university, local and national levels, and many are also known and respected for their work internationally. They regularly demonstrate outstanding achievements in the areas of teaching, research, scholarship, creative endeavors, and service. Many contract faculty have been employed by the University for extended periods of time, often on one-year contracts. Forty percent (40%) of Ball State University’s contract faculty have worked for the university for seven (7) or more years; nine percent (9%) have dedicated twenty (20) or more years of service.
CHARGE

Our committee was tasked with recommending new titles associated with each contract faculty position and to give all contract faculty a path to promotion. We were given a tight deadline to provide a recommendation for implementation in Fall Semester of 2017.

TITLE AND PROMOTION POLICY RECOMMENDATION

Contract faculty currently employed by Ball State may have their titles reassigned based on the criteria listed in the proposed titles and promotions chart (see below) and may be eligible to apply for the appropriate promotion level based on demonstration of excellence in their area of specialization. Contract faculty may be eligible to apply for a first promotion no earlier than their seventh (7th) year of full-time service (not necessarily continuous) and a second promotion no earlier than five (5) years (not necessarily continuous) of service after their first promotion. Salary increments may be awarded at each promotion along with a three-year contract and five-year contract, respectively.

Documentation of excellence may vary depending on the area of specialization. Departments will create their own policies, procedures, and expectations of excellence for promotion of contract faculty. These policies will be included in each department’s contract faculty merit document and will be approved by the University Faculty Salary and Benefits Committee.

All promotion decisions will be handled at the department level and approved by the College Dean, the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs, Office of the President, and the Board of Trustees. Decisions on promotions are a separate process from and will have no bearing on the annual review of contract faculty performance and decisions about contract renewals. The first line of appeal for a negative promotion decision should be heard by an ad hoc committee comprised of contract faculty members from that college and a representative of the dean’s office. The second line of appeal should be heard by the University Contract Faculty Affairs Committee and a representative of the Provost’s Office.

CURRENT CONTRACT FACULTY

Questions may arise concerning current contract faculty on campus, and how the change in titles affect those who currently hold Assistant Professor rank and those individuals who have been employed for a minimum of (7) or more years with meritorious rating.

- Contract faculty currently employed by Ball State will have their titles reassigned based on the criteria of the Titles and Promotion chart and will be eligible to apply for the appropriate promotion level based on the faculty member's documented demonstration of excellence if they have completed the requisite number of years of service.

- During the initiation year for titles and promotion, a department committee holds the discretion of awarding titles to contract faculty who have shown excellence with meritorious ratings and have been employed by Ball State University a minimum of seven (7) years to the first promotion according to the Titles and Promotion Chart.

- During the initiation year for titles and promotion, a department committee holds the discretion of awarding titles to contract faculty who have shown excellence with meritorious ratings and have been employed by Ball State University for a minimum of twelve (12) years to the second promotion according to the Titles and Promotion Chart.

- Contract faculty who received the first promotion during the initiation year and have served twelve (12) or more years may apply for second promotion after three (3) years.

- Contract faculty who currently carry the title of Assistant Professor may elect to maintain the title of Assistant Professor but will negate their ability to be promoted. Final decisions on maintaining the title or moving to the promotable titles has to be made and discussed with the department chair within one (1) year of initiation of the contract faculty titles and promotions policy.

Decisions on promotions are a separate process from and will have no bearing on the annual review of contract faculty performance and decisions about contract renewals. The first line of appeal for a negative promotion decision should be heard by an ad hoc committee comprised of contract faculty members from that college and a representative of the dean’s office. The second line of appeal should be heard by the University Contract Faculty Affairs Committee and a representative of the Provost’s Office.

CURRENT CONTRACT FACULTY

Questions may arise concerning current contract faculty on campus, and how the change in titles affect those who currently hold Assistant Professor rank and those individuals who have been employed for a minimum of (7) or more years with meritorious rating.
• Contract faculty currently employed by Ball State will have their titles reassigned based on the criteria of the Titles and Promotion chart and will be eligible to apply for the appropriate promotion level based on the faculty member’s documented demonstration of excellence if they have completed the requisite number of years of service.

  • During the initiation year for titles and promotion, a department committee holds the discretion of awarding titles to contract faculty who have shown excellence with meritorious ratings and have been employed by Ball State University a minimum of seven (7) years to the first promotion according to the Titles and Promotion Chart.

  • During the initiation year for titles and promotion, a department committee holds the discretion of awarding titles to contract faculty who have shown excellence with meritorious ratings and have been employed by Ball State University for a minimum of twelve (12) years to the second promotion according to the Titles and Promotion Chart.

  • Contract faculty who received the first promotion during the initiation year and have served twelve (12) or more years may apply for second promotion after three (3) years.

• Contract faculty who currently carry the title of Assistant Professor may elect to maintain the title of Assistant Professor but will negate their ability to be promoted. Final decisions on maintaining the title or moving to the promotable titles has to be made and discussed with the department chair within one (1) year of initiation of the contract faculty titles and promotions policy.
