4. Committee Reports
   A. Governance and Elections Committee – Karen Kessler – Karen announced the Ad hoc Writing Committee members. They will include herself, Dom Caristi, Tiffany Peters and Tonya Skalon. She would still looking for a junior faculty member to join. Colleen Balukas recommended Stephen Hessel. Karen Kessler agreed to contact him to find out his interest. Jessi Haeft stated she would consider it and get back to Karen at a later time. Timeline of work would be to have the first full read by October/November 2019 and then a second reading in January/February 2020. There will be open forums before and after the first reading. This is an aggressive timeline goal.

   B. Faculty Council – Yaron Ayalon- This will be his last report to the Senate- The council spent half of their last meeting on April 18, 2019 talking about the Core Curriculum proposal. They voted to continue the discussion after the Core Curriculum Committee has open forums. The council heard from the Teaching Evaluation Committee about their recommendations for next year’s committee work. The council voted on and approved changes to the University Promotion and Tenure document. They also endorsed the COTE- Net Zero proposal. Senate Chair Tarek Mahfouz initiated a round of applause for Yaron’s whole-hearted efforts this year as Faculty Council Chair.

   C. University Council – Laura Helms – The council met on April 4, 2019. They endorsed the Student Government Association LGBTQ legislation but did not endorse the COTE- Net Zero proposal.

   D. Campus Council – Kathy Berryhill – Campus Council had their first and last meeting on April 9, 2019. The council heard information from Mike Gillilan about the revisions needed for the Code of Student Rights and Responsibilities. The council voted on and approved the revisions to be sent on to the Senate Agenda Committee for consideration. A Chair for 2019-2020 was not elected. Moving forward, Kathy suggested that committees or anyone that needs an item of business brought forward can bring it to the Senate Agenda Committee. The Student Government Association is willing and able to work with the Senate Agenda Committee moving forward as well. Today is Kathy’s final University Senate meeting. She thanked everyone for sharing the last three years with her. University Senate applauded Kathy for her many accomplishments and service to the University.

E. Student Government Association- Aiden Medellin- He’s excited to be here and begin working with the University Senate. At the last Student Government Association Senate meeting he established a large portion of his cabinet members. Twelve new Senators were elected.

5. Report by Chairperson of Senate – Tarek Mahfouz – GANTT chart (Enclosure #1) - Issues in the Senate System
   A. Library Committee Resolution- Bruce Frankel- The committee met on Monday April 20, 2019. The Dean of University Libraries has determined that his staff cannot determine the specific amounts needed to satisfy the request so essentially the proposal has been made dead at this time. The Dean plans to work with the new budget model to sustain the library. The strategic plan of the library has been accepted by the Provost.
