

VITA
Linda Duncan, Ph.D., Retired Professor,
Anderson University

EDUCATION

Degree Status

Ph.D.	Purdue University	1988	Special Education
M.S.	University of Akron	1972	Special Education
B.S.	Kent State University	1969	Elementary Education

PROFESIONAL EXPERIENCE

University Experience

2006-2016	Professor, School of Education, Anderson University
2000-2006	Adjunct faculty, Anderson University, Graduate Education Program
1998-2000	Adjunct faculty, Valparaiso University, Elementary Education Department
1991-1996	Faculty, Ball State University, Department of Special Education
1990	Adjunct faculty, IUPUI
1988-89	Visiting Assistant Professor, Purdue University, Department of Elementary Education
1985-88	Research Assistant and Graduate Instructor, Purdue University

Public School Experience

2000-2006.	Director of Special Education, Carmel Clay Schools
1996-2000	Director of Special Education, South LaPorte County Special Education Cooperative
1980-1985	Special Education Teacher, Northeast Indiana Special Education Cooperative
1976-1979	Special Education Teacher, Central Kansas Special Education Cooperative
1972-1974	Special Education Program Coordinator, Jordon School District
1969-72	Special Education Teacher, Tuslaw Local Schools

Other Experience

1989-1991	Educational Consultant, Indiana Department of Education, Division of Exceptional Learners
-----------	--

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

Council for Exceptional Children
Indiana Council of Administrators in Special Education
Indiana Federation Council for Exceptional Children
Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development
International Reading Association
Phi Delta Kappa