Charter Schools Reconsideration Procedures

I. Initiation of Request for Reconsideration

The Charter School Organizer may request reconsideration of a decision by the University not to renew a Charter School’s charter agreement. Such a request must be in writing and delivered in accordance with the notice provisions of the Organizer’s charter within the applicable time frame specified in this Section I. Receipt of a fax transmission will be accepted, however, if legible and actually received by the Charter Schools Office within the applicable time frame and if followed by a request made pursuant to the notice provisions of the charter initiated no later than the date of the fax transmission. The request for reconsideration must be made within ten (10) business days after the date of the deemed delivery of the notice of non-renewal.

II. Membership of Ball State University Charter Schools Hearing Panel

Requests for Reconsideration will be made to the Ball State University Charter Schools Hearing Panel, consisting of three persons appointed by the University President, or his or her designee, and shall be persons not previously involved in the decision to issue the notice of intent to not renew. The President will appoint a hearing officer (“Hearing Officer”) who will establish hearing procedures, convene the Ball State University Charter Schools Hearing Panel, and preside over the hearing process. The Hearing Officer is a non-voting participant in the hearing process.

Additionally, no one may serve to hear an appeal that has a demonstrated conflict of interest such as any other previous involvement with the situation, assignment to the same department as any of the principals in the case, business involvement, or relationship to any of the principals. Decisions regarding such conflicts shall be made by the Hearing Officer.

III. Timing

A hearing will be scheduled no sooner than ten (10) business days (and generally within twenty (20) business days) after receipt of the request for reconsideration. The University may, however, on its own initiative or upon approving a request from the Organizer, schedule the hearing at any later date prior to termination date of the charter contract, as necessary to accommodate the members of the Ball State University Charter Schools Hearing Panel or to allow proper preparation for the hearing. The Hearing Officer, the panel chairperson, and the Executive Director of Charter Schools Office (the “OCS Executive Director”) shall mutually determine the time and place of the hearing.

IV. Parties

Parties participating in the appeal hearing are the Organizer and the OCS Executive Director.

Copies of these materials must be distributed to all hearing participants at least three (3) business days prior to the date of the hearing. Additional materials and/or witnesses may not be utilized by either party at a hearing without the consent of the Ball State University Charter Schools Hearing Panel.

VII. Attendance at Hearing

The president of the Organizer’s board or his/her designee must attend the appeal hearing and may present witnesses and evidence relevant to the University’s decision not to renew. X. Use of Witnesses for the Hearing

The Organizer or the OCS Executive Director may call witnesses, which may include representatives attending the hearing, as necessary. The time used by witnesses in initial testimony shall be counted as part of the allotted time of the person who calls that witness. Time spent answering any questions by the other party or the Ball State University Charter Schools Hearing Panel shall not be counted as part of the time allotted to the person who calls the witness. The Ball State University Charter Schools Hearing Panel may call or recall persons to give additional testimony concerning the issues involved in the case.

XI. Use of Pertinent Papers, Written Testimony, Documents

The Organizer and the OCS Executive Director shall each use a letter system to identify and document material submitted in evidence to the Ball State University Charter Schools Hearing Panel. The Organizer and the OCS Executive Director may submit questions in writing to the Hearing Officer prior to or during the hearing. The Ball State University Charter Schools Hearing Panel reserves the right to screen questions but generally will do so only to avoid redundancy, repetition, immateriality, or irrelevance. Verbal questions, for procedural clarification, that either party wishes to direct will be allowed at the discretion of the Executive Director of University Compliance. Neither party shall interrupt the proceedings but shall signal the attention of the Hearing Officer by raising his/her hand.

Any person accompanying the Organizer or the OCS Executive Director may speak only to a point of procedure. Such person may advise the party being accompanied, help with papers and documents, and take notes. Participation by legal counsel is limited to providing counsel directly to the Organizer or OCS Executive Director and not a presentation of evidence or arguments to the Ball State University Charter Schools Hearing Panel. The proceedings of the Ball State University Charter Schools Hearing Panel may not be audio or video recorded.
