

Dispositions Acknowledgement Form

I, _____, acknowledge that dispositions identified in The Educator Disposition Assessment (EDA) apply within the university setting, all courses, and all practicum experiences. I recognize the strong connection between the dispositions of teachers and the quality of their students' learning. I understand effective teachers possess the professional dispositions outlined in the EDA. I am aware that my professional dispositions will be assessed throughout the teacher education program and will influence decisions made regarding eligibility to complete the program.
