

Requirements for Instructional Programs

*Rules 46-47 *(Past)*

Rules 2002 (New)

Initial License	Rules 46-47 *(Past)	Rules 2002 (New)
Minimum Degree	Bachelors with minimum of 124 hours with 2.500 GPA	Bachelors with minimum 2.500/4.000 GPA
Standards		INTASC Principles IN Developmental and Content standards Indiana Academic Standards National Professional Organizations
Assessment		Unit Assessment System (UAS)
General liberal arts and subject matter	Secondary :40 semester hours Elementary: 70 semester hours	Institutional arts and science core requirements
Subject matter	Secondary: Major 36-52 hours, optional minor 24 hours Elementary: Included in 70 semester hours	Content Standards Indiana Academic Standards National Professional Organizations
Reading	Secondary: 3 semester hours Elementary : 6 semester hours	Content Standards
Professional Education	27-30 semester hours	INTASC Principles IN Developmental and Content Standards Indiana Academic Standards
Electives	Semester hours vary by subject matter	Determined by institution
Field Experiences and Student Teaching	Minimum of 10 weeks of student teaching	Knowledge, Dispositions and Performances assessed in varied field experiences Assessments provide evidence of meeting standards
Testing	PRAXIS I and II	PRAXIS I and II
License Addition
Subject Matter	Endorsement – 12- 15 semester hours Minor Area -24 semester hours Supporting Area – 15 semester hours	No Endorsements, Minor, or Supporting Areas Must provide evidence that candidate has met content and developmental standards in new area
Standards		INTASC Principles/NBPTS/ National Professional Organizations IN Developmental and Content standards
Assessment		Unit Assessment System (UAS)
Advanced License
Subject Matter	Professionalization requires specific courses in all content areas on the license plus MA degree and teaching experience	Accomplished Practitioner License – requires MA degree and a Proficient Practitioner License
Standards		NBPTS /National Professional Organizations Developmental Standards Content Standards
Assessment		Unit Assessment System (UAS)
Advanced Programs (nonlicensing)
Subject Matter	License renewal – 6 semester hours every five years; Degrees – only as related to additions and professionalizations	Must provide evidence of meeting appropriate standards; Degrees must provide evidence of coherent program
Standards		NBPTS/ National Professional Organizations IN Developmental and Content Standards
Assessment		Unit Assessment System (UAS)

*Rules 46 & 47 are a prescriptive checklist of courses, an accounting model of licensing. Rules 2002 for licensing are standards and performance based, an accountability model of licensing.

**Unit Assessment System (UAS) is an integrated performance-based system of multiple measures at multiple points in preparation to determine what prospective teachers know and are able to do.