

N. Emil Thomas

(He/Him/His)

Directing – B.A

nemilthomas@gmail.com

Biography:

N. Emil Thomas is a Southern Gentleman with a New York Attitude. Ball State University Alumni, class of 2016, Emil studied directing under the leadership of Karen Kessler. Co-Founder and creator of Ethnic Theatre Alliance now named Artist for inclusivity. I first chose Ball State for the Directing Program and the traditional American college experience the university had to offer. During my time at Ball State, I spent a mass amount of my time, exercising my social justice skills for the arts and building bridges that opened the department to other areas of the university such as the Theatre and Dance Living Learning Community. I decided to become an alumni ambassador to be part of the solution that pushes the Theatre and Dance Department to its next level. You can check out my previous credits and archives of my productions at nemilthomas.com