

This production of Gloria includes a realistic depiction of homicide and suicide at the end of the first act. The prop gun carried on stage is not capable of firing any real ammunition. The second act includes detailed discussions of these events. If you have any additional questions about content, you are welcome to contact the College of Fine Arts at cfaconnect@bsu.edu.