

Hailey O'Dell is a queer Filipino-American performing artist from Warsaw, Indiana. Through her work with performance, she seeks to be a mirror for others so that they might see themselves in the reflection. It is important that she helps tell the stories that still need to be told (or that no one is brave enough to tell). As a creative, she wants to do it all, but Hailey is particularly interested in exploring motion capture, stunt work, and voice acting! When not prepping for her next creative endeavor, Hailey could probably be found editing videos, living different lives in open-world RPGs, writing, or playing guitar. Recent stage credits include Romeo & Juliet (Mercutio), Gloria (Kendra/Jenna), and My Daughter Keeps Our Hammer (Sarah). Recent film credits include Caroline Never Comes to the Party (Supporting) and The Fire We Choose (Lead) which premiered at the Heartland Indy Shorts Film Festival!
