

Parker Bowman is a singing actor hailing from Fort Wayne, Indiana. He is currently a student at Ball State University in Muncie, Indiana, studying Musical Theatre.

Parker has been in a total of six shows at Ball State, all of which contain and portray a variety of themes and styles. Notable roles of his include Jason in Ordinary Days and Harry/Ensemble in Kinky Boots, alongside understudying Charlie. Other Ball State productions include The SpongeBob Musical, The Prom, and Cabaret, all of which he was an ensemble member with one or two understudy tracks.

At Ball State, Parker is a part of the university's Association of Collegiate Acapella, specifically the Tenor-Bass group Unexpected Resolution, where he sings Tenor 1 and Tenor 2. Additionally, he is heavily involved with the community of Ball State's Theatre and Dance Department, helping out with student projects and holding a job in the department. Through community, joy, and a desire for change, Parker hopes to use his creative talents and education to extract raw, powerful emotions from audiences and encourage people to contemplate how we can create a better tomorrow.
