

Lawhead Teaching Award in General Education

Nomination Form

A committee made up of past Lawhead Teaching Award winners will evaluate the nominee's contribution to the University Core Curriculum program (teaching in and service to the program are given the highest priority so it helpful to quantify that for the committee). Letters from nominators are highly influential and beneficial during the committee deliberation.

However, the committee also recommends the nominee include a brief curriculum vitae (with emphasis placed on their work in the Core); a teaching philosophy; and key course materials (such as syllabi and assignment descriptions). The packet should not exceed 25 total pages. Those 25 pages include the nominator letters.
