Freedom Bus

In collaboration with the Martin Luther King Jr. Dream Team, Virginia B. Ball Center for Creative Inquiry, the Muncie Human Rights Commission, and the City of Muncie. The Center for Peace and Conflict Studies was a key partner in sponsoring the Freedom Bus. The mission of this mobile museum is two-fold: (1) To educate 4th & 5th graders in East Central Indiana (ECI) about civil rights activism in ECI and (2) To inspire them to make a difference in their own communities.

The Freedom Bus was launched in 2015.

About Us

The Center for Peace and Conflict Studies is an interdisciplinary, university-based unit that pursues research on structural and direct forms of violence and conflict; implements nonviolent strategies to resolve conflict; offers mediation services to individuals, groups, and organizations; and trains people in conflict resolution, mediation, peace-building, leadership, meditation, and sportspersonship skills. It also pursues public diplomacy, sports diplomacy, and cultural exchange as part of local, regional, national, and international projects designed to promote mutual understanding, appreciation, cooperation, and respect.
